Requests for credentials to cover BYU football should be sent from the editor or sports director via official company communication to Kenny Cox (kenny_cox@byu.edu). Credentials shall be issued only to accredited newsgathering media outlets. Fan-based websites and podcasts will not be issued media access and credentials but are invited to utilize resources provided online at BYUcougars.com to obtain notes, quotes, statistics and other information about BYU football.

All single-game credential requests should be received no later than one week prior to the date of the game to ensure consideration. Credentials for working media are restricted in accordance with BYU, Big 12 and NCAA rules and guidelines. Non-working persons, including spouses, dates and children, will not be credentialed and are not allowed in the working media areas during the game as dictated by NCAA guidelines. It is our intention to ensure proper, professional use is made of the space available for credentialed media.

INTERVIEWS

All interview and information requests regarding all players, coaches and Athletic Department personnel must be arranged in advance through the Athletic Communications staff (see contact information above). BYU provides regular media availability each week. Local media members are responsible for attending media availability to conduct interviews. Opponent and national media can arrange telephone or Zoom interviews through the BYU Athletic Communications team. An advisory is provided each week detailing the weekly availability opportunities. Any other interview requests must be made at least 24 hours in advance. Interviews with players are not permitted after Wednesday each game week. Player interviews will not be conducted during regular class hours.

Please contact the Football Strategic Communications team for specific times and other details regarding access opportunities.

Some players may not be available depending on circumstances such as classes, exams or other obligations. We support and maintain the philosophy that reports submitted via podcast, X or any other form of social media or mass communication should maintain the same standards of professional conduct, judgment and ethics as would any reports broadcast or published by your organization under the scrutiny of standard professional editorial guidelines and principles. We request your cooperation in our efforts to maintain a professional environment.

KALANI SITAKE - HEAD COACH

kah-lah-nee see-tah-kay

YEARS AT BYU: 10th year at BYU (72-43) YEARS OVERALL: 10th year as head coach, 25 years in coaching

Kalani Sitake (kah-lah-nee see-tah-kay) is entering his 10th season overseeing the BYU football program in 2025.

In his 25th overall season as a coach, Sitake leads the program he once played for under legendary Hall of Fame coach LaVell Edwards. A former Cougar running back (1994, 1997-2000), Sitake is the 14th head coach in BYU history and just the fourth since 1972, when Edwards took over the program. Sitake is the first former player under Edwards to be named head coach at BYU.

Sitake and his program moved from the ranks of FBS independents to join the Big 12 Conference in 2023 to take another step forward in the Big 12 Conference. A former Cougar running back (1994, 1997-2000), Sitake has guided BYU to a 72-43 (.626) overall record during his first nine seasons, including an 11-2 record in 2024 while finishing Blg 12 play at 7-2 in a four-way tie for first place atop the conference standings. Sitake has guided BYU to double-digit victory seasons in three of the past five years while achieving a 45-18 (.714) record to boast the No. 8 winning percentage among all FBS coaches in that span.

This past season the American Football Coaches Association named Sitake its 2024 Region 4 Coach of the Year and a finalist for AFCA National Coach of the Year. He was also a semifinallist for the prestigious George Munger Award from the Maxwell Football Club given to the nation's top coach. He was named to the Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year Award Watchlist and the Dodd Trophy Midseason Watch List.

The Cougars finished the year ranked No. 13 in the nation after earned a 36-14 victory over No. 23 Colorado in the Valero Alamo Bowl in front of the most-watched game in the modern era of BYU football with 8 million viewers on ABC—the most-watched bowl game outside of the College Football Playoff in the 2024 season. A capacity crowd of 64,261 also watched the game in person—the second-highest for a Valero Alamo Bowl that did not include a Texas team (other was Oklahoma State and Ohio State in 2004) and the highest attended bowl game outside of the CFP in 2024.

With the invitation to the 2024 Alamo Bowl, Sitake has been part of 15 bowl games during his coaching career. He has been on the winning side 12 times those 15 bowl games, including a 5-2 mark as a head coach at BYU.

Before joining the Big 12 during his tenure in independence, Sitake helped the Cougars achieve notable wins over Arkansas, Baylor, Wisconsin, Michigan State, Mississippi State, Tennessee, USC, Utah, Arizona, Arizona State, Washington State and Boise State, among others. He has also championed BYU's Built4Life career development and NIL program. Built4Life is designed to support BYU student-athletes in developing critical life skills, facilitating professional development opportunities and connecting classroom learning directly to relevant employment opportunities.

Named BYU's head coach on December 19, 2015, Sitake returned to his alma mater from Oregon State, where he served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator in 2015 under head coach Gary Andersen. Sitake took the helm at BYU after 15 years in the college coaching profession, which included seven seasons serving as a defensive coordinator and four years as an assistant head coach.

Prior to Oregon State, Sitake spent 10 seasons at the University of Utah under head coach Kyle Whittingham, also a former Cougar. Sitake started at Utah in 2005 as the linebackers coach and was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2009 before also being named assistant head coach in 2012. While at Utah, Sitake coached several Pac-12 and Mountain West Conference honorees, including Morris Trophy winners Star Lotulelei (2011) and Nate Orchard (2014).

During his career, Sitake has helped mentor 33 NFL Draft picks, including 13 Cougars since taking over the program. Last year's draft saw left tackle Kingsley Suamataia selected by the Kansas City Chiefs. In 2023, three Cougars drafted included Blake Freeland (4th round), Jaren Hall (5th round) and Puka Nacua (5th round). Nacua earned All-Pro status while finishing as the Offensive Rookie of the Year runner-up after a record-breaking first season in the league. In 2022, RB Tyler Allgeier went to the Atlanta Falcons, where he set a Falcon's rushing record for a rookie with a 1,000-yard season. Allgeier followed the footsteps of other recent Cougar draft picks under Sitake, such as No. 2 overall pick Zach Wilson and offensive tackle Brady Christensen among five players drafted in the 2021, linebackers Sione Takitaki and Fred Warner in 2019 and 2018 and running back Jamaal Williams in 2017. Among their many accomplishments, Williams, BYU's all-time rushing leader, also rushed for more than 1,000 yards in 2022 while leading the NFL in rushing touchdowns, while Warner again earned All-Pro honors being widely regarded as one of the top linebackers in the NFL.

Sitake began his coaching career in 2001 as the defensive backs and special teams coach at Eastern Arizona before becoming a defensive graduate assistant at BYU in 2002 under Gary Crowton. Sitake then joined the staff at Southern Utah where he coached running backs, tight ends and offensive line during the 2003 and 2004 seasons.

He began his BYU playing career in 1994 prior to serving a two-year mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to Oakland, California. After returning and redshirting in 1997, Sitake was a three-year starter at fullback for the Cougars from 1998-2000 under Edwards. A team captain as a senior, Sitake's last game as a player was also the last game coached by the legendary Edwards, who was a great mentor for Sitake.

Born in Nuku'alofa, Tonga, and raised in Laie, Hawai'i and Provo, Utah, Sitake is the nation's first FBS head football coach of Tongan descent. He graduated from BYU in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in English. He and his wife Timberly have four children.

BRIAN SANTIAGO

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Brian Santiago's appointment was formally announced on Wed., May 14, at 10 a.m. MST by BYU President C. Shane Reese at a press conference that was broadcast on BYUtv.

Santiago comes to the director of athletics role after decades of experience within BYU Athletics, where he distinguished himself as a leader committed to BYU's mission and the success of student-athletes, staff and coaches.

"We are excited to build on the forward momentum and legacy of Tom Holmoe, who is retiring, with the appointment of Brian Santiago as BYU's next director of athletics," Reese said. "Brian has a track record of leadership and an ability to lead BYU Athletics as we navigate the complex and rapidly evolving waters of college athletics. It's become clear to me throughout this search process that Brian will seek to strengthen BYU's academic and spiritual mission, and he understands how it blesses the lives of our student-athletes."

Santiago began his career at BYU in 1997, joining the men's basketball coaching staff. He then moved into athletic administration, including serving as an assistant and associate athletic director. In 2008, Holmoe appointed Santiago as a senior associate athletic director. In 2017, he was appointed as the deputy athletic director.

BYU completed its second year in the Big 12 athletic conference, winning two NCAA national championships in both women's and men's cross country. BYU men's basketball and football finished ranked no. 13 in the AP Poll. BYU is also currently in the top-10 across all NCAA Division I men's and women's athletics in the most recent Learfield Directors' Cup standings. According to its mission statement, BYU Athletics aims to develop "successful, faith-based, influential scholar-athlete leaders who are ambassadors for good." BYU Athletics is funded exclusively through the revenues and donations that come to the athletics program.

A graduate of Provo High School, Santiago earned an associate's degree in accounting from Utah Valley and a bachelor's in business administration with an emphasis in international business from Fresno State. He also graduated with an MBA from BYU's Marriott School of Management. Santiago played basketball at both Utah Valley and Fresno State, where he led the Western Athletic Conference in assists and three-point shooting percentage. He was later named to the pre-selection Olympic team for Puerto Rico.

Santiago served a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in the Dominican Republic. He and his wife Kimberly are the parents of four children.

BYU'S HISTORY

The establishment of the Brigham Young Academy in 1875 offered an academically stimulating and gospel-oriented education to 29 students. The one-acre school grounds presided over by Karl G. Maeser have since developed into nearly 600 acres and more than 300 buildings. From its inception, the goal of Brigham Young University has been to offer "a new kind of education" for Zion, one based on precepts "revealed by the Lord," as Maeser once remarked. Today, BYU provides an outstanding education in an atmosphere consistent with the standards and principles of its sponsor, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The University is widely recognized for its deep commitments to inspired religious values and rigorous intellectual learning.

BYU MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Brigham Young University — founded, supported, and guided by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints — is to assist individuals in their quest for perfection and eternal life. That assistance should provide a period of intensive learning in a stimulating setting where a commitment to excellence is expected and the full realization of human potential is pursued.

All instruction, programs, and services at BYU, including a wide variety of extracurricular experiences, should make their own contribution toward the balanced development of the total person. Such a broadly prepared individual will not only be capable of meeting personal challenge and change but will also bring strength to others in the tasks of home and family life, social relationships, civic duty, and service to mankind.

AIMS OF A BYU EDUCATION

BYU seeks to develop students of faith, intellect, and character who have the skills and the desire to continue learning and to serve others throughout their lives. These are the common aims of all education at BYU. Both those who teach in the classroom and those who direct activities outside the classroom are responsible for contributing to this complete educational vision. A BYU education should be:

- Spiritually Strengthening
- Intellectually Enlarging
- Character Building
- Leading to Lifelong Learning and Service

CHURCH EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM HONOR CODE

The Church Educational System (CES) is sponsored by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Church) and directed by the Church Board of Education/Boards of Trustees, with the mission to develop disciples of Jesus Christ who are leaders in their homes, the Church, and their communities.

The CES Honor Code helps to accomplish the CES mission to build disciples of Jesus Christ. As faculty, administration, staff, and students voluntarily commit to conduct their lives in accordance with the principles of the gospel of Jesus Christ, they strive to maintain the highest standards in their personal conduct regarding honor, integrity, morality, and consideration of others. By accepting appointment, continuing in employment, being admitted, or continuing enrollment, each member of the campus communities personally commits to observe the CES Honor Code approved by the Board of Trustees:

- Maintain an Ecclesiastical Endorsement, including striving to deepen faith and maintain gospel standards
- Be honest
- Live a chaste and virtuous life, including abstaining from sexual relations outside marriage between a man and a woman. Living a chaste and virtuous life also includes abstaining from same-sex romantic behavior
- Abstain from alcoholic beverages, tobacco, tea, coffee, vaping, marijuana, and other substance abuse
- Participate regularly in Church services
- Respect others, including the avoidance of profane and vulgar language
- Obey the law and follow campus policies, including the CES Dress and Grooming standards
- Encourage others in their commitment to comply with the Honor Code and Dress and Grooming standards

MISSIONARY SERVICE

Read more about BYU and missionary service

Brigham Young University is owned and operated by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and the missionary program is one of its most recognized characteristics. Latter-day Saint missionaries can be seen on the streets of hundreds of major cities in the world as well as in thousands of smaller communities.

The missionary effort is based on the New Testament pattern of missionaries serving in pairs, teaching the gospel and baptizing believers in the name of Jesus Christ (see, for example, the work of Peter and John in the book of Acts).

56 members of the current team has served a Latter-Day Saint mission. Members of the team have served in 22 different countries, speak 10 languages and have served on six of the seven continents around the globe. BYU currently has several members of the team (previous signees or on roster) that are currently serving in the mission field. Six of the full-time coaches served a mission, including head coach Kalani Sitake.

More than 74,000 full-time missionaries are serving missions for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Most missionaries are young people under the age of 25, serving in 407 missions throughout the world.

Missionaries work with a companion of the same gender during their mission, with the exception of couples, who work with their spouse. Single men serve missions for two years and single women serve missions for 18 months.

Missionaries receive their assignment from Church headquarters and are sent only to countries where governments allow the Church to operate. Missionaries do not request their area of assignment and do not know beforehand whether they will be required to learn a language.

Prior to going to their assigned area, missionaries spend a short period of time at one of 22 missionary training centers throughout the world. There they learn how to teach the gospel in an orderly and clear way and, if necessary, they begin to learn the language of the people they will be teaching. The largest training center is in Provo, Utah, with additional centers in Brazil, Colombia, England, Ghana, Mexico, New Zealand, Peru, the Philippines, and South Africa.

A typical missionary day begins by waking at 6:30 a.m. for personal study. The day is spent proselytizing by following up on appointments, visiting homes or meeting people in the street or other public places. Missionaries end their day by 10:30 p.m. Schedules are flexible depending on the culture of the country where missionaries are serving.

Missionary work is voluntary. Missionaries fund their own missions — except for their transportation to and from their field of labor — and are not paid for their services. Missionaries avoid entertainment, parties or other activities common to this age-group as long as they are on their missions, so they can focus entirely on the work of serving and of teaching others the gospel of Jesus Christ.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was officially organized on April 6, 1830 with six members. Today, congregations of the Church total over 16 million members, it is one of the fastest growing religions in the world and one of the largest Christian churches in the United States.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is Christian, but is neither Catholic nor Protestant. Rather, it is a restoration of the original church established by Jesus Christ. For more information on the beliefs of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, visit www.ChurchofJesusChrist.org

COUGAR CLUB

WELCOME TO THE CLUB!

The Cougar Club is the official booster organization for BYU Athletics. The Athletic Department receives no tithing money or tax dollars to run BYU's athletic programs. The Cougar Club is responsible for raising the funds to pay for Athletic Department expenses including student-athlete scholarships, coaches' salaries, and recruiting expenses, as well as funding the facilities and programs associated with each of BYU's 21 athletic teams.

The Cougar Club exists to:
SUPPORT Student-Athletes
SUPPORT Coaches
SHARE the Mission of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and Brigham Young University through Athletic Excellence

Our mission is to build a distinctive, exceptional athletic program that is fully aligned with the mission and values of Brigham Young University and The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

The Cougar Club is dedicated to the success of Coach Kalani Sitake and the BYU football team; donors receive Cougar Club status for any gift to BYU athletics. With the donations and support of thousands of members nationwide, the Cougar Club supports more than 600 BYU student-athletes. Through its fundraising and promotional mission, the Cougar Club is enhancing the future success of BYU Athletics.

BYU Athletics depends on loyal Cougar Club members for funding critical to the athletic department's success. The changing nature of collegiate athletics means that to compete at the highest levels, BYU must raise more money every year. The costs associated with being one of the nation's top programs continue to rise dramatically. With that challenge in mind, the support of Cougar Club Members becomes an important key to the future achievements of BYU Athletics.

"BYU's donors and fans make all the difference, and we can't do it without your help!" says Cougar Club Director Greg Vehar. "For our teams to continue to achieve national prominence, the Cougar Club needs to continue to grow."

FUNDING

Cougar Club donations are used for many vital athletic priorities, including:

- Funding athletic scholarships
- Building and maintaining state-of-the-art facilities
- Supporting the Student Athlete Life and Learning Center
- Sponsoring outreach to the elementary schools and the community by BYU Student Athletes
- Paying recruiting expenses to help BYU coaches attract talented athletes from across the country and around the world
- Funding the Nutrition Center and the Student Athlete Fuel Card

CONTRIBUTION LEVELS

There is a Cougar Club membership level for every fan who wants to help BYU continue to build a strong athletic tradition. Annual Members make Cougar Club contributions of between $60 and $3,000 each year, based on their financial ability to give and the athletic benefits they want to receive. Legacy Members make an initial contribution of $10,000 or more and continue their involvement with sustaining annual gifts of $2,000 or more. To acknowledge the generosity of Club members, the athletic department makes a number of benefits available to Cougar Club members, including priority seating, parking passes, and Club events. However, the greatest benefit of membership is knowing that the Cougar Club is helping BYU Athletics continue to be one of the nation's top collegiate athletic programs and making a difference in the lives of more than 600 BYU student-athletes.

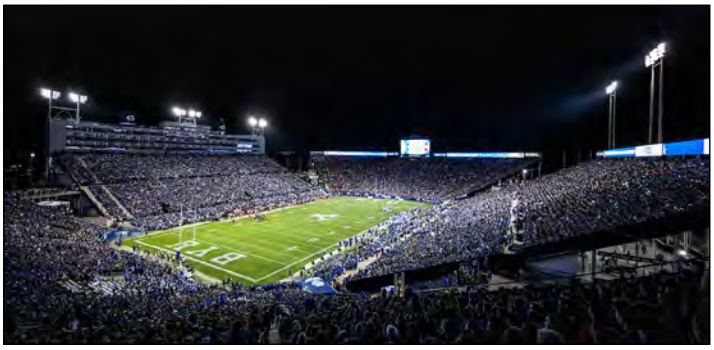
"You guys will agree that [Lavell Edwards] stadium is one of the prettiest settings of college football. This stadium is just unbelievable."

— KIRK HERBSTREIT,
ESPN College Football Analyst



LAVELL EDWARDS STADIUM

CAPACITY: 62,073
CONSTRUCTED: 1964 (COUGAR STADIUM)
EXPANDED: 1982 RENAMED: 2000
PLAYING SURFACE: NATURAL GRASS
ELEVATION: 4,338

PICTURE PERFECT

With its 62,073-seat capacity, video walls and immaculate press boxes, LaVell Edwards Stadium is home to legendary BYU football. Since its expansion in 1982, the stadium has consistently ranked among the nation's top 30 in attendance.

THE FIELD

The field is covered with a sand-based natural turf, new for the 2024 season, capable of draining eight inches of rain per hour. The well-kept grass field is consistently deemed one of the best in the country.

RENAMING

The stadium's name was changed from Cougar Stadium to LaVell Edwards Stadium, in honor of legendary Hall of Fame head coach LaVell Edwards, in a pregame ceremony on November 18, 2000, conducted by President Gordon B. Hinckley, president of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Edwards had previously announced he would retire following the 2000 season after 29 years at the helm.

HISTORY/EXPANSION/SEATING CAPACITY

Cougar Stadium was originally built in 1964 with a seating capacity of 45,000, including the temporary bleachers in the end zone. As a result of increased seating demands, BYU made yet another renovation in 1982, adding stands to the north and south end zones, lowering the field eight feet and removing the track surrounding the field (which hosted the 1967 and 1975 NCAA Track and Field Championships). The stadium expansion increased the seating capacity to over 65,000.

The crowd of 64,253 that gathered for BYU's first game in the expanded stadium on September 25, 1982 was reportedly "the largest gathering ever in Utah history" at the time. In 2003, BYU added a luxury "Club Seating" area to the east stands taking the capacity of Edwards Stadium down to 64,045. In 2010 and 2011 BYU created additional wheelchair access inside the stadium, which reduced the capacity by 575 seats to 63,470. Additional upgrades changed capacity to 62,073 prior to the 2024 season.

2024 UPDATES

For the 2024 season, BYU installed new natural grass for the playing surface and replaced the field turf in the team bench areas and surrounding sidelines. New LED lighting and light fixtures were installed. Suites also received remodels and numerous seating areas were updated with new seats and club level areas to enhance the LaVell Edwards Stadium experience. A new addition to the post-game media area as also completed for the fall of 2024.

VIDEO BOARDS, LED RIBBONS AND SOUND SYSTEM

In 2021, new video boards, LED ribbon boards and a new sound system were installed. The project was funded completely by Nu Skin, a longtime partner and corporate sponsor of BYU Athletics. Both video boards at the north and south ends of the stadium were replaced. The old dimensions were 34 by 50 feet, the new dimensions of the south board will be 48 by 131 feet and the north board is 36 by 72 feet. New LED ribbon boards were also be installed on the north and south ends of the stadium to match the current ribbon board on the east side of the stadium. The north and south ribbon boards are now eight-foot ribbon boards. A new single point sound system replaced the old sound system in the north end zone, which significantly enhanced the audio experience for those in attendance.

2019 UPGRADES & IMPROVEMENTS

Structural sections at the four corners of the stadium were added for the 2019 season that connect the existing four independent stadium stands at the mezzanine level. The upgrades improve accessibility, safety and the overall patron experience at BYU football games, allowing fans to walk between stands without having to return to ground level and increasing the number of services and restrooms in the stadium with women's, men's and family-friendly facilities being added on the north and south mezzanine levels. In 2022, BYU added more corporate sponsorship areas and Club 22, a hosting area inside the stadium.

WI-FI AND DAS

In 2018, BYU became the first college football program in the country to implement a full-stadium, high-density Wi-Fi offload solution used in many NFL stadiums. BYU partnered with Verizon Wireless and Extreme Networks to install new state-of-the-art Wi-Fi and distributed antenna system (DAS) in Edwards Stadium. The cutting-edge system provides BYU fans and vendors the ultimate large-venue mobile connectivity experience.

*Due to Covid-19 pandemic, spectators were only allowed to attend four home games which each had varying capacity limits. Many programs across the country did not allow any spectators or had limited access.

BYU FOOTBALL: 2024 SEASON REVIEW

In its 100th season in 2024, BYU football won 11 games, finished tied for first in the Big 12 standings and crowned the year with a dominant bowl victory to cap a season to remember.

The 2024 season featured an entertaining BYU team that, despite being picked to finish 13th out of 16 teams in the league, finished No. 13 in the final national rankings. The Cougars were constantly in the national conversation as a team in competition for the College Football Playoff and in contention for a Big 12 title until the last day of the regular season.

Twenty seniors led the way in 2024 for BYU's 13th 11-win season in program history, and the third double-digit victory campaign in the last five seasons. Most of BYU's 2024 senior class finished with an overall record of 45-18, tied for No. 10 in total wins since 2020 and ranking No. 8 in winning percentage (.714) in that span. Only seven teams in college football finished with more than 11 wins in 2024 and a total of 16 reached the 11-win mark in the FBS.

In celebration of its 100th season of football, BYU featured several callbacks to the past during the 2024 campaign. The program honored the great teams, coaches and players throughout the year, highlighted the great moments on and off the field and paid homage to the history and success of the program through different ways in 2024.

Head Coach Kalani Sitake

Sitake was named the AFCA Region 4 Coach of the Year and a finalist for AFCA National Coach of the Year, was a semifinalist for the George Munger Award given to the nation's top coach and was selected as one of three individuals to be inducted into the 2025 Class of the Polynesian Football Hall of Fame.

Early in the season, Sitake was also named to the Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year Award Watchlist and the Dodd Trophy Midseason Watch List. He completed the season as one of just eight active FBS head coaches with three seasons of 10-plus wins over the last five seasons while boasting the No. 8 winning percentage in that timeframe.

In the Spotlight

The program's culture of "Love and Learn" was on display in full, highlighted by a visit from Fox's Big Noon Kickoff and the program was often featured on ESPN's College Game Day. BYU played on national broadcast networks ABC and FOX and was featured on ESPN seven times as well as games on ESPN2, FS1, CBS Sports and ESPN+ in 2024, culminating with the most-watched game in the modern era of BYU football with 8 million viewers against Colorado in the Valero Alamo Bowl on ABC—the most-watched bowl game outside of the College Football Playoff in the 2024 season.

Cougar Nation also showed up in droves to both LaVell Edwards Stadium and on the road all season long, including the sold-out Alamo Bowl with 64,261 fans in attendance, the most at a game outside the CFP.

The program led the Big 12 in attendance, averaging an over-capacity 62,849 fans in LaVell Edwards Stadium, the most since 2009, to rank No. 25 in the nation. The game day experience in Provo was brought to a new level in 2024 with more Cosmo stunts, drone shows, LED lighting, music, fireworks and more. The venue was constantly highlighted as one of the best game environments in the nation by visiting fans, media members and opponents throughout the season.

BYU coaches and players participated in more than 200 national media interviews leading up to and during the 2024 campaign, ranging from USA Today, The Wall Street Journal, The Associated Press, The Athletic, The Atlantic, Sports Dissected, Sports Illustrated, ABC, FOX, CBS, ESPN, ESPN Radio, Tune-in Radio, Sirius College Sports Radio and more.

BYU finished at No. 13 in the final Associated Press Top 25 and No. 14 in the final AFCA Coaches Poll following the conclusion of the college football postseason. The No. 13 final ranking is its highest since finishing No. 11 in 2020 after an 11-1 season, and marks the program's 12th top-15 final ranking in school history. Overall, the Cougars have finished in the top 25 during 21 seasons, including three of the last five years.

With all eyes on BYU in 2024, the Cougars put together one of the program's best seasons in history.

Setting the Tone

After playing 10 power-five teams in 2023, the Cougars followed it up with a program-record 11 opponents from power conferences in 2024. BYU faced three teams that finished in the AP Top 25 and five bowl teams, including two College Football Playoff teams.

Days before the 2024 season kicked off against FCS Southern Illinois, the team had a lot more on its mind than just football when associate head coach and defensive coordinator Jay Hill suffered a health scare.

Despite being released from the hospital the morning of the season opener, Coach Hill was determined to be with the team at the stadium and watched the Cougars start the year with a dominant 41-13 victory over the Salukis.

Hill never missed a game and helped set the tone for BYU's strong defensive performance in 2024.

Fast Start

After a season-opening win against Southern Illinois, BYU played a short-week road game on a Friday night in Dallas against SMU in the earliest test of the 2024 season.

The Mustangs entered the game as one of the most potent offenses in the nation and BYU held them to just 15 points on five field goals—the first time SMU hadn't scored a touchdown since 2016. The Cougar offense did just enough to overcome a 9-7 halftime deficit. A late-third quarter touchdown and a 26-yard chip shot by Will Ferrin with 1:58 to go in the game was the difference in an 18-15 victory for the Cougars.

The win at SMU would pay dividends throughout the season as Mustangs went on to win nine in a row, with the loss to BYU as their only setback of the regular season. SMU played Clemson in the ACC title game, with both earning a spot in the College Football Playoff after the Tigers won on a last-second field goal. SMU's potent offense finished the year No. 8 nationally in scoring, with only CFP opponent Penn State being able to hold the Mustangs to less total yards and points in a game than BYU.

Following the SMU statement win, the Cougars stayed on the road to face old WAC and MWC foe Wyoming, where BYU used a 100-yard Keelan Marion kickoff return for a touchdown to spark a runaway second half in a 34-14 victory in Laramie.

Making a Statement

BYU welcomed No. 13 Kansas State to LaVell Edwards Stadium in what proved to be a night to remember in Provo.

Trailing 6-3 with 1:17 left in the first half, the Cougars, donning their 1996 Cotton Bowl throwback uniforms, scored four touchdowns in a span of 5 minutes and 23 seconds thanks to three Kansas State turnovers and a wild 90-yard Parker Kingston punt return for a touchdown. Scoring touchdowns in all three phases—offense, defense and special teams, BYU flipped the game on its head, roaring to a 31-6 lead and never looked back, winning 38-9 in one of the most electric atmospheres all season at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

The 29-point win became largest margin of victory over a top-15 ranked team in BYU history. In holding the Wildcats without a touchdown, BYU became the first program since 2020 to accomplish that feat against K-State. Coupled with the win over SMU, BYU's defense successfully kept two opponents out the end zone in the same season for the first time since BYU's No. 3-ranked defense in 2012.

Big Noon Comes to Provo

Following its dominant win over Kansas State, BYU went on the road and beat a Baylor team 34-28 that was just starting to heat up in conference play. The Bears went on to win six of their last seven games following the loss to the Cougars.

After starting conference play 2-0 and holding a perfect 5-0 record, BYU was selected to host Fox's Big Noon Kickoff for its homecoming game against Arizona.

Big Noon Kickoff's host Rob Stone along with analysts Mark Ingram II, Matt Leinart, Urban Meyer and Brady Quinn got the party started early on Saturday morning in front of a raucous BYU crowd outside of LaVell Edwards Stadium. The Cougars then delivered on the field with a complete victory in a 41-19 drubbing of the Wildcats to stay perfect at 6-0.

Staying Unbeaten
On another short week, BYU hosted a hungry Oklahoma State team featuring 2023 Doak Walker Award winner Ollie Gordon that was determined to turn its season around. The game was a dogfight with scores back and forth before the Cowboys looked ready to end the dream season for the Cougars with a go-ahead score with 1:13 remaining.

Retzlaff engineered a 75-yard drive, highlighted by a 27-yard keeper to get deep into Oklahoma State territory with less than 30 seconds to go. Retzlaff spiked the ball to stop the clock and on the next play hit Lassiter in stride at the 10-yard line, who then shaked and baked his way into the end zone with 10 seconds on the clock to win the game 38-35 in an instant classic in Provo.

BYU returned to the road for its longest trip of the season to visit Orlando the next week against UCF. Facing the favored Knights with one of the nation's top running backs in RJ Harvey, the Cougars used a balanced attack on offense and a stingy defense to build a 24-10 lead at half and go on to win 37-24 heading into a critical bye week.

After a week off, BYU and Utah matched up in another rivalry classic at Rice-Eccles Stadium. Preseason favorites to win the Big 12, Utah also entered the game coming off a bye week to prepare having lost four in a row and likely out of contention for a conference title but eager to spoil BYU's perfect record.

Down 21-19 with 1:56 to play, BYU began its final drive at its own 9-yard-line and snatched renewed life from the jaws of defeat when a defensive holding call against Utah gave the Cougars a first down at their own 19.

Two plays later, receiver Chase Roberts dove for a 30-yard completion from Retzlaff that kept BYU driving to its 49. Retzlaff then connected with Darius Lassiter for a gain of 12 into Utah territory. Hinckley Ropati bettered BYU's field position with a run of 14 yards to the Utah 25 as the clock hit one minute to play.

The Cougars used the ensuing plays to maneuver into a field goal spot and sent Will Ferrin and the field goal unit onto the field as the clock was winding down into the final seconds. Ferrin sent the kick 44 yards through the middle of the uprights for three, winning the game 22-21 and moving BYU to 9-0, its second-consecutive win over the Utes and first in Salt Lake since 2006.

BYU's defense held Utah scoreless in the second half, allowing only four first downs and just 79 total yards. Aside from Ferrin's heroics, The Cougars also got a kickoff return touchdown from Keelan Marion and the special teams unit for a complete victory.

The win marked the first 9-0 start since 2020, second under Kalani Sitake and fifth in school history (2024, 2020, 2001, 1984, 1979).

Setbacks, Finishing Strong
At 9-0, BYU reached 6-0 in Blg 12 play and No. 6 in the CFP rankings before heading into its matchup with a red-hot Kansas team. Unfortunately, the perfect season came to an end against the Jayhawks in game 10, with Kansas scoring the 3-yard, go-ahead touchdown after a quick-kick punt by the KU quarterback hit the back of a the BYU defensive back's helmet while in pass coverage and was recovered by the Jawhawks at the 3 yard line.

Despite getting the ball into the red zone for another potential game winner inside the final minute, the Cougars came up short in the heartbreaking 17-14 loss for its first blemish of the season. The Jayhawks, picked in the preseason among the league favorites, became the first team in NCAA history with a losing record to defeat three straight nationally ranked opponents.

The next week, with its own destiny for the Big 12 championship game still in control, BYU traveled to Tempe to face Arizona State in a battle of the league's top teams. After falling behind 21-0, the Cougars came back to make it 28-23 in the fourth quarter. Attempting to dial up another comeback, a late interception while moving the ball doomed most hopes of another come-from-behind win. BYU, however, did get one final chance. After an extended delay due to a premature field rush by ASU fans, BYU regained possession for one final play and got off a long Hail Mary pass caught by Roberts but the surrounding Sun Devil defenders pulled him to the ground two yards short of a game-winning score.

At 9-2 overall and 6-2 in league play, BYU needed some help to make it to the Big 12 title game on the final day of the regular season. The other potential outcomes that day didn't happen the way the Cougars needed, but it didn't stop BYU from taking care of its own business on senior night with a 30-18 victory over Houston in Provo to finish the regular season at 10-2 and tied at 7-2 for the best record in the Big 12.

Remember the Alamo
The Cougars were selected to the Valero Alamo Bowl as the Big 12's top choice, in a unique matchup against Colorado, representing as a former Pac-12 member for an all-Big 12 bowl game.

The two ranked teams with charismatic coaches, senior leadership and the 2024 Heisman Trophy winner, faced off in one of the most watched postseason games of 2024.

Despite having the better record and higher ranking, BYU was the underdog yet again in the game and delivered one of its most complete victories of the 2024 season against the Buffaloes.

BYU's defense was especially dominant, shutting out Colorado's offense in the first half and harassing Buffalo quarterback Shedeur Sanders all game with four sacks and two interceptions. The Cougar defense held Colorado to just two rushing yards.

Linebacker Isaiah Glasker was named the Defensive MVP with eight tackles, 1.5 tackles for loss and an interception, while Offensive MVP running back LJ Martin posted 121 all-purpose yards and two touchdowns while punt returner Parker Kingston housed his second return of the year for a 64-yard touchdown. Kicker Will Ferrin put the icing on cake of his record-setting season with a pair of 50-plus yard field goals en route making the most in any season in BYU football history with 24.

In the National Polls
BYU moved up to No. 13 in the final Associated Press Top 25 and No. 14 in the final AFCA Coahes Poll following the national championship game on January 20.

After being picked 13th in the Big 12 preseason media poll, the Cougars ended up being No. 13 in the nation following an 11-2 season and 7-2 conference record to finish in a four-way tie atop the conference standings. AP voters advanced BYU four spots in their final rankings, while and coaches moved the Cougars three places in the AFCA's US LBM Coaches Poll published by USA TODAY Sports.

BYU's No. 13 final ranking was its highest since finishing No. 11 in 2020 after an 11-1 season, and marked the program's 12th top-15 final ranking in school history. Overall, the Cougars have finished in the top 25 during 21 seasons, including three of the last five years.

In 2024, BYU earned victories over two teams in the final top-25 rankings, in No. 11/12 SMU and No. 25 Colorado. The Cougars achieved two wins over final top-25 teams for the fourth time in school history, something past BYU programs previously accomplished in 2021, 1996 and 1983.

During the season, BYU faced two teams that qualified for the inaugural 12-team CFP playoff, giving SMU its only regular-season blemish and coming up two yards short of victory in a 28-23 setback at ASU.

The final AP ranking marked BYU's 292nd overall appearances in the AP poll since its first national ranking in 1974. Since that season 50 years ago, BYU has ammassed 441 victories to rank No. 8 in total wins among all FBS programs in that timeframe.

The Cougars were ranked in the last 13 national polls since entering the top 25 this season at No. 22 in week five of the polls to receive a top-25 ranking for the first time since week five of the 2022 season.

In their second season in the Big 12 in 2024, the Cougars finished league play in a four-way tie for first place in the conference standings at 7-2 along with Arizona State, Iowa State and Colorado. With the Cougars and Buffaloes not advancing to the title game due to tiebreaker scenarios, the Sun Devils (11-2) claimed the 2024 Big 12 Championship by defeating the Cylones (10-3) at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas, and recieved the No. 4 seed in the CFP as the Big 12 champion.

The Cougars were ranked No. 9, No. 6, No. 14 and No. 19, No. 18 and No. 17 in the CFP rankings released this season.

COUGARS CORRAL SMU FOR 18-15 WIN IN DALLAS

DALLAS — BYU football moved to 2-0 on the season with an 18-15 win over SMU in a defensive duel at Gerald J. Ford Stadium on Friday night.

The Cougars faced a 9-7 halftime deficit but fought back to a 15-12 lead late in the third quarter. SMU then kicked its fifth field goal of the night to square the game 15-15 with 6:17 remaining. BYU's offense responded with a nine-play, 67-yard drive that ended in Will Ferrin booting the go-ahead field goal with 1:58 to play.

After hampering the Mustang offense all night, the Cougar defense put a fitting end to the game as it forced four-straight incompletions and took over on downs.

The BYU defense forced SMU to exchange touchdowns for field goals, barring the Mustangs from the end zone for the first time since 2016. The Cougars also allowed just 261 total yards, SMU's fewest in two seasons. Mustang quarterbacks threw for just 144 yards and completed just 47 percent of passes.BYU also held SMU to 3-of-16 on third down while recording three sacks, eight tackles-for-loss, an interception, five pass breakups, seven quarterback hurries and a forced fumble.

Linebacker Harrison Taggart posted a team-high eight tackles (four solo) with half a tackle-for-loss, a forced fumble, two pass breakups and two quarterback hurries.Defensive tackle Blake Mangelson mauled his way into the Mustang backfield from the get-go and finished the night with seven tackles (two solo), 2.5 tackles-for-loss, a sack and quarterback hurry. Linebacker Isaiah Glasker tacked on six tackles (two solo), a sack and pass breakup as well.

BYU quarterback Jake Retzlaff finished the night 15-of-28 for 202 yards with one touchdown pass to two interceptions. Darius Lassiter recorded a team-high 62 receiving yards on two grabs, while tight end Mata'ava Ta'ase caught his second touchdown pass in as many weeks and had two receptions for 42 yards.

BYU SCORES IN ALL THREE PHASES, BEATS NO. 13 K-STATE 38-9

PROVO, Utah — BYU football moved to 4-0 on the season and 1-0 in Big 12 Conference play with a commanding 38-9 victory over No. 13 Kansas State Saturday night at Lavell Edwards Stadium.

BYU's 29-point win is the largest margin of victory over a top-15 ranked team in program history. The Cougars held Kansas State without a touchdown for the first time since 2020. With Saturday's win, alongside an 18-15 win at SMU on Sept. 6, BYU has now held two opponents without a touchdown for the first time since 2012.

With 1:17 left in the first half, the tone of the game completely shifted. BYU linebacker Jack Kelly forced a Kansas State fumble at the Wildcats' 30 yard line. True freshman safety Tommy Prassas scooped up the ball and ran into the endzone, giving the Cougars their first lead of the game at 10-6.

On the night in which BYU honored its 1996 Cotton Bowl Championship team, the Cougars scored a touchdown in each of the three phases of the game for the first time since 1996. In a 45-17 win at Utah State in 1996, BYU's offensive touchdowns were supplemented by a 45-yard fumble recovery for a touchdown by linebacker Shay Muirbrook and a 79-yard punt return for a touchdown by wide receiver James Dye.

The Cougars' defense forced three Wildcat turnovers in the span of 2:19. Each resulted in a touchdown for BYU. The defense forced two interceptions, a fumble, a sack, three tackles for loss and two pass breakups. Harrison Taggart led BYU with 10 total tackles and Jakob Robison and Crew Wakely each pitched in with seven. Jake Retzlaff completed 15-of-21 passes on the night for a total of 149 yards and two touchdowns. The junior quarterback connected with nine receivers, with Roberts leading all pass-catchers with 47 yards on two receptions and a touchdown. WAKLEY INTERCEPTION SEALS 34-28 WIN AT BAYLOR, SENDS NO. 22 BYU TO 5-0

WACO, Texas — BYU clung to a six-point lead with a minute to play when safety Crew Wakley picked off a Baylor pass along the sideline, sealing the 34-28 win for the Cougars at McLane Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

The Cougars used efficient offense and yet another forced turnover to take a 21-0 lead in the first quarter. Baylor's offense found its legs at the end of the first period and by half had cut the BYU lead to 31-14.

Wakley was one of six BYU defenders to record a team-high four tackles. The safety recorded solo stops on each tackle, including a sack and the game-sealing interception. Defensive tackle Blake Mangelson also posted four solo tackles and an interception, with his coming in the first quarter and immediately setting up a Cougar touchdown.

BYU's defense forced six pass breakups, including two from defensive end Logan Lutui at the line of scrimmage. Tyler Batty and defensive tackle John Taumoepeau each recorded sacks, giving the Cougars three against the Bears on the day.

Meanwhile, the BYU offensive line didn't allow a single sack to a Baylor defense that forced eight a week ago at Colorado.Quarterback Jake Retzlaff completed 18 of 32 passes for 218 yards and three touchdowns with two interceptions. Retzlaff led BYU with 53 rushing yards on six carries, including his first rushing score of the season. Running back Enoch Nawahine added 51 rushing yards on 19 carries.

Darius Lassiter proved to be Retzlaff's favorite target of the day. The senior wide receiver reeled in eight receptions for 120 yards and a touchdown.

COUGARS WIN 38-35 OVER OKLAHOMA STATE WITH A FINAL-MINUTE MIRACLE

PROVO, Utah — No. 13 BYU picked up a 38-35 win over Oklahoma State in a back-and-forth, down-to-the-wire Big 12 contest at Lavell Edwards Stadium Friday night, thanks to a final-minute 75-yard touchdown drive.

BYU edged out the victory with a game-winning drive propelled by quarterback Jake Retzlaff with 1:12 remaining on the clock. Retzlaff threw a 35-yard touchdown pass to Darius Lassiter who dodged multiple Cowboys and snuck into the endzone with 10 seconds on the clock, helping the Cougars secure move to 7-0 on the year for the first time since the 2020 season.

Prior to the win, the last time BYU secured a victory with a go-ahead score with under 1:30 remaining (1:12) was in the 33-28 Nebraska win in 2015 (0:40 remaining).

Retzlaff went 13-for-26 for 218 yards and two passing touchdowns and one rushing touchdown. He also gained 81 rushing yards on the night. The wide receiver room was led by Lassiter who gained 129 yards on six receptions. He started and ended the game with big-play catches. Keelan Marion followed with 56 yards on three receptions and one touchdown. Chase Roberts had three catches, all three for first downs. LJ Martin recorded a career high in rushing yards (120) and tied a career-high with two rushing touchdowns on a season-high 20 carries. Hinckley Ropati rushed for 81 yards on nine carries.

The BYU defense was led by Harrison Taggart with 11 total tackles, six of which were solo. Isaiah Glasker had eight total tackles. Crew Wakley had six total tackles, while Jack Kelly earned five. Tanner Wall and Tommy Prassas had an interception each.

COUGARS MOVE TO 8-0 WITH 37-24 WIN AT UCF

ORLANDO, Fla. — No. 11 BYU defeated UCF 37-24 to advance to 8-0 for the fifth time in program history Saturday night at FBC Mortgage Stadium.

BYU's 8-0 start marks the program's second under Sitake (2020) and fifth in program history as the Cougars also went 8-0 in 2001, 1984 and 1979.

Quarterback Jake Retzlaff went 16-for-24 for 228 yards and two passing touchdowns. Retzlaff threw a 62-yard touchdown pass to Chase Roberts for the Cougars' longest play from scrimmage on the season. In the third quarter, he connected with Mata'ava Ta'ase for a one-yard passing touchdown. Retzlaff also ran for 38 yards, including a 29-yard rushing touchdown to start off the scoring.

Roberts led the receivers with 75 yards in the game. Both Darius Lassiter and Parker Kingston had four catches each for 54 and 37 yards respectively. Six other players had a reception for the Cougars. BYU outrushed UCF 228-198 in the game. The Cougars were led by LJ Martin who had 101 rushing yards on 15 carries and a touchdown. Hinckley Ropati added 83 yards on 13 carries.

On defense, the Cougars were led by Crew Wakley and Isaiah Glasker who had five tackles each. Glasker also added an interception. BYU had another pick courtesy of Faletau Satuala. Blake Mangelson had four tackles, a sack and a pass deflection.

The Cougars racked up 480 yards of total offense to UCF's 379 and led in time of possession 40:28 to 19:32. The 40+ minutes in time of possession was the most for the Cougars since 2015 and ninth highest time of possession in BYU history.

FERRIN'S 44-YARD FIELD GOAL SENDS NO. 9 BYU TO 9-0 WITH 22-21 WIN AT UTAH

SALT LAKE CITY — In its 100th season and 96th meeting with Utah, No. 9 BYU football etched yet another memorable win into the program's annals as kicker Will Ferrin connected on a 44-yard game-winning field goal with three seconds remaining.

Down 21-19 with 1:56 to play, BYU began its final drive at its own 9-yard-line and snatched renewed life from the jaws of defeat when a defensive holding call against Utah gave the Cougars a 1st down at their own 19. Two plays later, receiver Chase Roberts dove for a 30-yard completion from Retzlaff that kept BYU driving to its 49. Retzlaff then connected with Darius Lassiter for a gain of 12 into Utah territory. Hinckley Ropati bettered BYU's field position with a run of 14 yards to the Utah 25 as the clock hit one minute to play.

The Cougars used the ensuing plays to maneuver into a field goal spot and sent Ferrin onto the field as the clock wound down into the final seconds. Ferrin then sent the kick 44 yards through for three, putting BYU up 22-21. A fruitless Utah kickoff return ended the game and sent BYU to 9-0.

The special teams heroics weren't limited to Ferrin's field goal. In the second quarter of play, return specialist and speedster Keelan Marion posted his second kickoff return for a touchdown of the season with a 96-yarder that gave BYU its first lead at 10-7.

Despite allowing 21 first-half points, the Cougar defense adjusted at the half and pitched a second-half shutout that gave their offense the window it needed for the win. BYU outgained Utah 188-79 in the second half, including 113-25 through the air.

NO. 6 COUGARS COME UP SHORT IN 17-13 LOSS TO KANSAS

PROVO, Utah — Two empty redzone possessions and two untimely turnovers hampered No. 6 BYU as it fell 17-13 to Kansas Saturday night at Lavell Edwards Stadium, dropping the Cougars to 9-1 this season and 6-1 in Big 12 Conference play.

The Cougars converted two-of-four drives in the endzone as the Jayhawks went three-of-three. BYU threw an interception in the end zone at the end of the first half and had a Kansas punt bounce off a Cougar defender for another turnover in the fourth quarter, resulting in the eventual game-winning score for the Jayhawks.

In the final minutes down 17-13, BYU drove the ball to the Kansas 11-yard line but failed to convert on fourth down inside of one minute to play. The Jawhawks were able to run out the clock and end BYU's undefeated run.

Quarterback Jake Retzlaff threw for 192 yards on 18-of-28 passing, including a 30-yard touchdown pass to Hinckley Ropati in the second quarter. LJ Martin picked up 76 rushing yards on the night to become the 42nd player in BYU football history to surpass 1,000 rushing yards in a collegiate career. Ropati and Retzlaff also chipped in 35 and 21 rushing yards, respectively. Chase Roberts led the receivers with 71 yards on five catches. Keelan Marion added 42 yards on three catches.

Tyler Batty led the defense with eight tackles, a quarterback hurry and a sack. Harrison Taggart and Blake Mangelson recorded six tackles apiece. John Nelson also tallied a quarterback hurry and Isaiah Glasker a sack.

BYU outgained Kansas in total offense, earning 354 yards to Kansas's 242. The Cougars posted 162 yards on the ground and 23 first downs to the Jayhawks' 13.

BYU SEALS 11-WIN SEASON WITH 36-14 ALAMO BOWL WIN OVER NO. 23 COLORADO

SAN ANTONIO — No. 17 BYU played complementary football in all three phases of the game on its way to winning the Valero Alamo Bowl 36-14 over No. 23 Colorado on Saturday night at the Alamodome.

With an 11th win of the season on Saturday, the Cougars finished 11-2 (7-2 Big 12), earning their 13th all-time 11-win season in their 100th football campaign.

BYU dominated from start to finish including a 20-0 lead at halftime as the Cougars held Colorado's offense scoreless in the opening half for the second time this season. The special teams unit had a strong opening 30 minutes with Parker Kingston returning a punt for a touchdown for a second time this season and Will Ferrin connecting on a pair of field goals.

In total BYU outgained the Buffaloes 331-210, including a stifling 180-2 on the ground. The Cougars earned 22 first downs with an 8-of-14 mark on 3rd down, while allowing just nine to Colorado and ran 65 plays to the opponent's 42. BYU's ground game averaged 4.3 yards per carry while its defense allowed the Buffaloes just 0.1 per tote. The Cougars controlled time of possession as well, 35:59-24:01.

Isaiah Glasker led the BYU defense with eight tackles (four solo), a tackle-for-loss and interception on his way to Alamo Bowl Defensive MVP honors. Harrison Taggart, Raider Damuni, Logan Lutui and Siale Esera each registered a sack for the Cougars, headlining a BYU defensive effort that hounded Colorado quarterback Shedeur Sanders from start to finish.

Mory Bamba recorded two pass breakups and Tanner Wall another while cornerback Evan Johnson notched his second interception of the season.

With two interceptions forced against Colorado, the BYU defense finishes the 2024 season with the national lead in interceptions at 22.

Kingston rolled up 126 all-purpose yards in the Alamodome, including 102 yards on four punt returns. Kingston took his second punt return of the night 64 yards for a touchdown, his second such return of the season and the fifth BYU special teams score in 2024.

LJ Martin earned the Alamo Bowl's Offensive MVP award with 121 yards from scrimmage. Martin led BYU in both rushing and receiving with 16 carries for 88 yards and two touchdowns along with two receptions for 33 yards. Tight end Ryner Swanson also had two receptions for 30 yards.

1984 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

After finishing the 1984 season with a perfect 13-0 record, the Cougars were named No. 1 by the Associated Press, the United Press International, Sports Illustrated, CNN-USA Today and the Football Writers of America. BYU head coach LaVell Edwards was selected as the NCAA National Coach of the Year and was invited to visit President Ronald Reagan at the White House.

The perfect season featured several game-saving plays as the Cougars moved their way up the rankings. Quarterback Robbie Bosco connected with wide receiver Adam Haysbert for a 50-yard touchdown pass with 1:37 left to play to take the lead in the season-opening win at No. 3 ranked Pittsburgh.

Safety Kyle Morrell's timed leap over the center to stop a quarterback sneak short of the goal line gave BYU the momentum they needed to foil Hawai'i's upset attempt. Tight end David Mills was poked in the eye, but came through with a leaping grab in the end zone to help BYU overcome Wyoming 41-38 in the homecoming game.

The Cougars ascended to the No. 1 spot on Nov. 17 following a 24-14 victory at Utah combined with a Nebraska loss to Oklahoma and a Navy upset over unbeaten and then No. 2 South Carolina. The Cougars maintained their No. 1 ranking heading into the bowl game defeating Utah State 38-13 in the final contest of the regular season.

With a TV blimp in the sky over Jack Murphy Stadium, Bosco left the Holiday Bowl in the first quarter with an ankle injury, but returned late in the second taped up and played in the shotgun to finish the game. BYU trailed 17-10 after Michigan hit a field goal to begin the fourth quarter. The Cougars then took over the game, Bosco completed seven pass attempts to five different receivers and hit wide receiver Glen Kozlowski between two Michigan defenders for the game-tying touchdown.

Michigan threatened to score again, but linebacker Kurt Gouveia sacked the Wolverine quarterback for a 16-yard loss to force a punt. BYU moved the ball 70 yards to the Michigan 13-yard line when Bosco scrambled up the middle, keeping his eyes down field, and found running back Kelly Smith for the game-winning touchdown.

Controversy was abundant as many of the so-called experts such as NBC announcer Bryant Gumbell accused BYU of playing a "Bo-Diddley Tech" schedule. However, at the end of the season BYU was the only undefeated team in the nation.

REMEMBERING COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME HEAD COACH

LAVELL EDWARDS

257 CAREER VICTORIES • 19 CONFERENCE TITLES • 1 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Legendary BYU head football coach LaVell Edwards passed away Dec. 29, 2016 at the age of 86 surrounded by his wife Patti and their family.

Edwards, a coaching icon in college football, led the Cougars for 29 seasons from 1972 to 2000. He amassed 257 victories, which ranks seventh in NCAA Division I history. In addition, Edwards led BYU to the 1984 National Championship and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

"I love LaVell Edwards," said former BYU director of athletics Tom Holmoe. "He was a great coach, a wonderful person, a disciple of Christ, a loyal family man and a true friend. LaVell had a pure heart. His example will forever be with me and I will strive to live a life of love as he always did."

Known for his stoic sideline demeanor and quick-witted humor, Edwards was once labeled by USA Today as a "national coaching treasure." Beloved not only in coaching circles and all of Cougar Nation, but especially by the many hundreds of players under his tutelage, including current head coach Kalani Sitake who was a fullback and team captain for the Cougars.

In 1972, Edwards assumed command of a BYU program that had won just 173 games over 49 seasons, including just 14 winning seasons. The Cougars had never been to a bowl game and had just one conference championship prior to Edwards' promotion to head coach.

Undaunted by the formidable rebuilding task that lay ahead, Edwards transformed BYU into a national power, pioneering an aggressive and innovative passing attack that led BYU to conference titles in 19 of 29 seasons and an overall record of 257-101-3.

In his first season as the head coach, he led the Cougars to a 7-4 overall record, including a 16-7 win over in-state rival Utah. Just two seasons later, Edwards had the team rolling. The Cougars won the WAC Championship after a 48-20 victory over the Utes and accepted an invitation to the Fiesta Bowl—the team's first-ever bowl appearance, starting a run of 22 bowls in 29 years. The 1974 season turned out to be the first of 27 straight non-losing seasons.

After recording an 11-1 record in 1979, a 12-1 record in 1980 another 11-win season in 1981, eight more wins in 1982, and 11 additional wins in 1983, Edwards led BYU to a perfect 13-0 season in 1984. Following a 24-17 win over Michigan in the Holiday Bowl, the Cougars were crowned national champions. Not surprisingly, Edwards was named the National Coach of the Year for the second time in his career.

Under his direction, BYU recorded 10 straight conference titles from 1976 through 1985 and played in 17 consecutive bowl games from 1978 until 1994.

On New Year's Day in 1997, BYU set an NCAA record with 14 victories after winning the Cotton Bowl to cap the 1996 season in a thrilling 19-15 victory over No. 14 Kansas State. BYU finished ranked No. 5 nationally—its highest finish since1984.

Edwards announced his retirement prior to the 2000 season. BYU would honor him by renaming Cougar Stadium, LaVell Edwards Stadium prior to the final home game of the year on Nov. 18. A banner bearing the new name was unveiled in a pregame ceremony conducted by President Gordon B. Hinckley, president of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

A week later BYU gave Edwards one more magic moment. Trailing Utah 27-26 in Salt Lake City with 23 seconds left, quarterback Brandon Doman scored a 7-yard touchdown run to send Edwards out a winner in his final game.

Edwards coached one Heisman Trophy winner, two Outland Trophy recipients, four Davey O'Brien awardees, seven Sammy Baugh Trophy Winners, 31 All-Americans and six College Football Hall of Famers. He was named NCAA District 8 Coach of the Year eight times, Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year in 1979 and AFCA National Coach of the Year in 1984.

Following his coaching career, Edwards served a full-time LDS mission with his wife Patti to New York City from 2002-03. He also served on several committees and boards for various college football awards and governing bodies following his retirement.

The eighth of 14 children, Edwards graduated from Lincoln High School in Orem. He attended Utah State University, where he was an all-conference lineman before serving a two-year commitment in the Army. He and Patti were married for more than 65 years. The Edwards have three children, Ann [Cannon], John and Jim.

"In the South there's Bear Bryant, Daryl Royal and Frank Broyles, in the East there's Joe Paterno, in the Midwest there's Bo Schembechler, Woody Hayes and Tom Osborne and in the West there's John McKay and LaVell Edwards. He's a legend. And as good a football coach as he was, he's a better man and he did it the right way. He's known throughout the country as a legend."

THE QUARTERBACK FACTORY

Beginning with Virgil Carter in the 1960s and Gary Sheide in the early 1970s, BYU has produced an assembly line of outstanding quarterbacks in Provo that have earned unprecedented success in college and professional football. Twelve BYU quarterbacks have earned at least an honorable mention All-America citation or Academic All-America honors.

The BYU quarterback factory has owned the NCAA record books and have won the Sammy Baugh trophy seven times and the Davey O'Brien four times. BYU has also produced a Heisman Trophy winner in Ty Detmer and many other Heisman Trophy candidates. Quarterbacks Gifford Nielsen, Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon, Steve Young and Ty Detmer have all been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

On seven different occasions, BYU quarterbacks have finished as the NCAA total offense leaders. Three of the top-15 career passing efficiency leaders are from BYU. In the 29 years LaVell Edwards coached at BYU, the Cougars led the nation in passing eight times and finished in the top five 17 times.

When Edwards was named head coach at BYU in 1972, he realized he couldn't compete initially with the big schools for the big-time athletes. So he installed a passing attack that would change the future of college football.

In a time when throwing the football was a mere change of pace to running the ball, BYU began leading the nation in offensive statistics year after year with its revolutionary passing attack.

In 46 seasons prior to Edwards, BYU had won a total of 171 games with just 16 winning seasons. Since 1972, BYU is No. 9 in total wins with 454. The Cougars have won 23 conference titles, played in 41 bowl games and won the national championship in 1984.

STEVE YOUNG, MIKE HOLMGREN AND LAVELL EDWARDS

Since 1976, 14 different Cougar quarterbacks have thrown for 3,000 yards. BYU has passed for at least 3,000 yards in 34 of the past 42 seasons, including 14 seasons with at least 4,000 yards and one season in 1990 with over 5,000 yards.

1990 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER
TY DETMER

On December 1, 1990, Ty Detmer and his teammates gathered poolside at the Princess Kaiulani Hotel just hours prior to kickoff with the University of Hawai'i.

Via satellite hookup with national television, Detmer and the BYU faithful patiently waited and listened as Downtown Athletic Club President C. Peter Lambos announced the winner of the 1990 Heisman Trophy as, "Ty Detmer, Ty Detmer of BYU," — soon Ty was dunked in the pool.

Detmer, a junior, became the first collegian from the Rocky Mountain region to win the Heisman Trophy. Named in honor of John Heisman, the coveted trophy has been awarded annually to the outstanding college football player of the year since 1935.

A 28-21 upset over No. 1-ranked Miami in Provo vaulted Detmer to the forefront in the Heisman race his junior season. Combined with a massive public relations "necktie" campaign for Ty, the 6-foot, 175-pound, gunslinger from San Antonio, Texas, guided BYU to a Holiday Bowl berth that season and a 10-3 record with 41 touchdowns and 5,188 yards passing.

Detmer polled 1,482 points to beat out Notre Dame's Raghib "Rocket" Ismail at 1,177 and finished first in all six regions. Detmer finished third in the Heisman balloting in 1991.

"Winning the Heisman was a great honor," said Detmer. "There have been a lot of great players, like my teammates and previous BYU quarterbacks, that contributed to it. They opened the door. It shows the strength of the program at BYU."

Detmer's portrait hangs alongside other recipients on the third floor of the DAC of New York City. The trophy is on display in the lobby of Legacy Hall, located in the Student Athlete Building.

The Sammy Baugh Trophy has been awarded annually to the nation's top passer by the Touchdown Club of Columbus since 1959. The award is named after College and Pro Football Hall of Famer Samuel "Slingin Sammy" Baugh who was a two-time All-American at TCU and went on to play with the Washington Redskins from 1937-1952. He was a six-time All-Pro selection and NFL Player of the Year in 1947 and 1948. Baugh is credited for making the forward pass an integral part of offensive play in the NFL.

BYU has produced a record seven Sammy Baugh winners including Gary Sheide, Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon, Steve Young, Robbie Bosco, Ty Detmer and Steve Sarkisian. No other school has more than four winners, trailing BYU's seven awards.

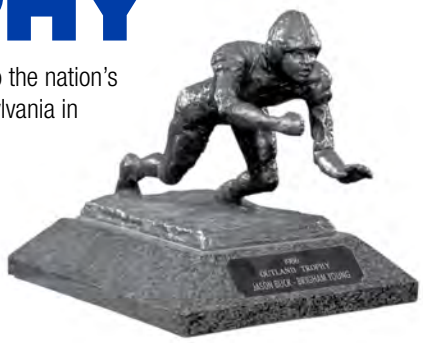
THE OUTLAND TROPHY

The Outland Trophy has been awarded annually by the Football Writers Association of America since 1946 to the nation's most outstanding interior lineman. It is named after the late John Outland, an All-America lineman at Pennsylvania in the late 1800s.

The Outland Trophy is the third oldest player award in major-college football behind the Heisman Trophy and Maxwell Award. In 1988, Jim Ridlon was commissioned to design and sculpt the Outland Trophy. A member of the National College Football Awards Association, the award has become one of college football's most prestigious.



JASON BUCK - 1986

Jason Buck, a 6-6, 270-pound defensive lineman from St. Anthony, Idaho, started out as a quarterback and linebacker at Ricks College before coming to BYU in 1985 as a lineman.

Buck led the 1986 Cougars with 218.5 defensive points and registered 26 unassisted tackles, 33 assisted tackles, 13 tackles for losses, 17 quarterback hurries and 12.5 sacks. Buck rode a publicity campaign of "One Buck" dollar bills in leading BYU to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Freedom Bowl in 1986.

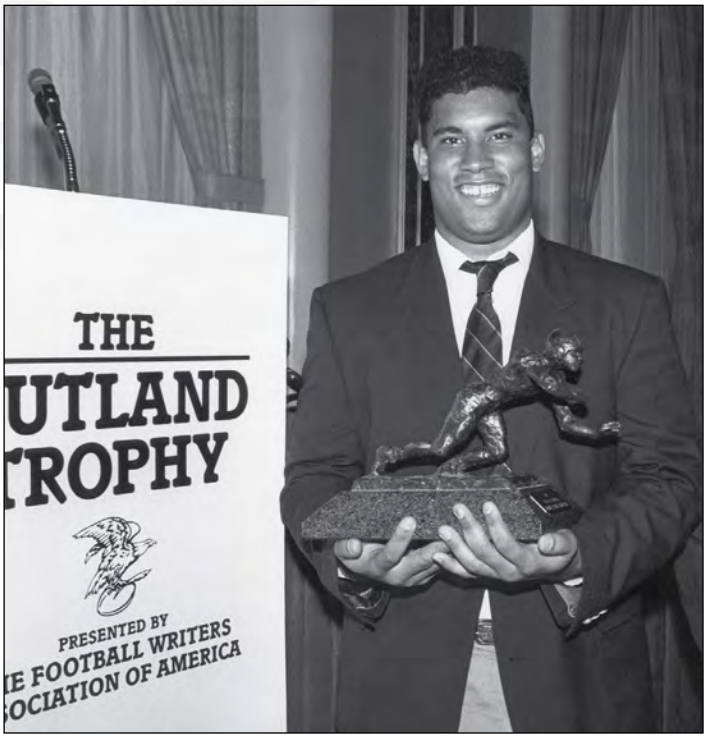
He was selected in the first round of the 1987 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals. He played seven seasons in the NFL with Cincinnati and Washington where he won a Super Bowl Championship at the end of the 1992 season.

MOHAMMED ELEWONIBI - 1989

Mohammed Elewonibi, a 6-5, 290-pound, offensive lineman from British Columbia, Canada, spent his childhood in his native Nigeria and didn't play football until after high school at Snow Junior College.

"Mount Mohammed" led BYU to a 10-3 record in 1989 and a berth in the Holiday Bowl. As a senior he graded out four times with perfect pass protection while protecting future Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer.

He was drafted in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins. He played four seasons in the NFL with Washington, where he won a Super Bowl in 1992 and also Philadelphia. Elewonibi later played 10 years in the CFL with Winnipeg and British Columbia.



THE MAXWELL AWARD

TY DETMER 1990

BYU quarterback Ty Detmer took home the Maxwell Award as college football's best player in 1990. Detmer won the Heisman and Davey O'Brien the same year. The Maxwell Award voting—by college coaches, the media and members of the Maxwell Football Club—had the same order of finish as the Heisman. Detmer had 1,993 points; followed by Raghib "Rocket" Ismail of Notre Dame with 1,385; Eric Bieniemy of Colorado with 747 and Shawn Moore of Virginia with 431.

Each year the Maxwell Football Club presents the Maxwell Award for the College Player of the Year. Dating back to 1937, this award is presented in honor of Robert W. (Tiny) Maxwell, legendary college player, official and sports columnist. Voters for the Maxwell College Awards are NCAA Head College Football Coaches, members of the Maxwell Football Club & sportswriters and sportscasters from across the country.

THE DOAK WALKER AWARD

LUKE STALEY 2001

BYU running back Luke Staley was named the winner of the 2001 Doak Walker Award at the ESPN Home Depot College Football Awards Show. The Doak Walker Award is given annually to college football's top running back.

"This is a great honor," Staley said. "I can't express how grateful I am for my family, my teammates, my coaches and everyone who made this possible."

In addition to winning the Doak Walker Award, Staley was also named a first-team member of the prestigious Walter Camp Foundation All-America Team and received consensus All-American recognition.

In addition to the Walter Camp All-America team, Staley was named a first-team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, the Associated Press, The Sporting News, Football News and CNNSI.

"We're very proud of Luke and all his accomplishments," said BYU head coach Gary Crowton. "Luke is a great example of working hard and staying focused. This is a great tribute for a great athlete, a great teammate and a great young man. We couldn't be more proud of him."

Staley, from Tualatin, Oregon, led the nation in scoring (15.5 p/game), yards per carry (8.1 y/carry) and finished the 2001 season ranked third in the nation in rushing, averaging 143.8 yards per game. He helped pace the Cougars to a 12-2 record on the season, scoring a BYU single-season record 28 touchdowns. Staley also set a BYU single-season record 1,582 yards rushing on the season that was just broken by Tyler Allgeier in 2021 with 1,601.

Founded in 1951 by the National Football Foundation, the College Football Hall of Fame immortalizes the greatest of the amateur gridiron. 5.1 million people have coached or played the game and less than 1,300 are inductees in the Hall. This makes the College Football Hall of Fame an extremely selective group of individuals. In other words, about two ten-thousandths of one percent (.0002) of the individuals who have played the game have been deemed worthy of this distinction.

BYU has produced seven Hall of Fame members, including six players and head coach LaVell Edwards.

Founded in 1947, The National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame inducted its first class of inductees in 1951. The first class featured 32 players and 19 coaches, including Illinois' Red Grange, Notre Dame's Knute Rockne, Amos Alonzo Stagg and Carlisle's Jim Thorpe.

More than 300 schools are represented with at least one former athletes in the College Football Hall of Fame. The new College Football Hall of Fame, which opened on Aug. 23, 2014, is a 94,256-square-foot attraction located in the heart of Atlanta's sports, entertainment and tourism district.

GIFFORD NIELSEN

QUARTERBACK: 1975-77
INDUCTED: 1994

Nicknamed the "Mormon Rifle," Gifford Nielsen became BYU's first Hall of Fame inductee in 1994. His prolific passing career began when he came off the bench in the third game of his sophomore season to lead the Cougars to a 16-15 come-from-behind win over New Mexico by completing 10 of 12 passes. As a junior in 1976, Nielsen really made fans sit up and notice. He passed for 3,192 yards and 29 touchdowns, set 13 WAC records and made All-America. The next season promised even more. He threw five touchdown passes against New Mexico, six against Utah State and was twice named Player of the Week. For the first time, a BYU football team was nationally ranked. "It was like a little dream world," said Nielsen, a product of Provo High School. "The numbers were just mind-boggling. Everything you could ever dream of as a kid in Provo, Utah, was in the palm of my hand." On Oct. 8, 1977, his season and college career ended when he suffered a serious injury. Over three years Nielsen averaged an astounding 243 yards passing per game. Nielsen played six years with the Houston Oilers and was the last quarterback to lead the Oilers to the AFC finals. He and his wife Wendy have six children.

MARC WILSON

QUARTERBACK: 1976-79
INDUCTED: 1996

One of the most celebrated quarterbacks in Cougar history, Marc Wilson earned consensus All-America honors in 1979 and was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Dec. 10, 1996. In Wilson's first game as a starter, he was 15 of 25 for 332 yards with seven touchdowns in a 63-17 triumph over Colorado State and was consequently named Sports Illustrated Offensive Player of the Week. In Wilson's career at BYU, he set 15 NCAA records. The 6-5, 204-pound quarterback ranked fourth in the nation in passing efficiency with a 147.1 rating in 1979. That same year, Wilson finished third in the Heisman balloting, led his team to an undefeated regular season and was named the Holiday Bowl's Offensive MVP. A true student-athlete, Wilson was the recipient of the NCAA Top Five Award and its post-graduate scholarship. A first round draft pick of the Oakland Raiders, Wilson played eight seasons before finishing his career with the New England Patriots. He and his wife, Colleen have four children.

JIM MCMAHON

QUARTERBACK: 1978-81
INDUCTED: 1998

McMahon set 75 NCAA records at BYU, was named a 1981 first team All-American by Kodak (Coaches), College & Pro Weekly, Associated Press, UPI, FWAA and second team NEA. In 1980 he earned first-team All-America from the FWAA. McMahon balloted third place for the Heisman Trophy in 1981 and fifth in 1980. In 1981, he won the Davey O'Brien Trophy, the Sammy Baugh Award, the Utah Sportsman of the Year and the NCAA Co-Offensive Player of the Year with Marcus Allen (Pigskin Club of Washington, D.C.). He led the NCAA in pass efficiency (155.0) and total offense (345.8) in 1981 as well as pass efficiency (176.9) and total offense (385.6) in 1980. He set 29 Western Athletic Conference records and was three-time WAC Player of the Year and first-team all-league. He broke 23 BYU records, was MVP of two Holiday Bowls and has been inducted to the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame. McMahon passed for 9,536 yards, threw 84 touchdowns and completed 653 of 1,056 passes at BYU. McMahon played for the Chicago Bears from 1982-88 (1986 Super Bowl Champs, 1985 Pro QB of the Year, and Pro Bowl); San Diego Chargers in 1989; Philadelphia Eagles from 1990-92; Minnesota

LAVELL EDWARDS

HEAD COACH: 1972-2000
INDUCTED: 2004

A coaching icon whose success and longevity are paralleled by few, Edwards posted a record of 257-101-3 (.716) over a span of 29 seasons at BYU. From 1972 until his retirement following the 2000 season, Edwards roamed the sidelines at BYU—a tenure that ranks fifth all-time among coaches at one school. In 20 of those 29 seasons, the Cougars claimed the league title. Guiding BYU to 22 bowl game appearances, including a streak of 17-straight bowl appearances, Edwards reached the pinnacle of coaching success in 1984 by winning the National Championship. His 257 wins rank him seventh in NCAA Division I-A history.

At the helm, Edwards coached one Heisman Trophy winner, two Outland Trophy recipients, four Davey O'Brien award winners and 32 All-Americans – not to mention countless players who went on to professional careers in the NFL. He was named NCAA District 8 Coach of the Year eight times, the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year in 1979 and AFCA National Coach of the Year in 1984. Named the State of Utah's Coach of the Century, Edwards is a member of the State of Utah Sports Hall of Fame. "When you think of the Hall of Fame, you think of longevity, excellence, leadership and quality," said former BYU quarterback Steve Young. "In my book, Hall of Fame and LaVell Edwards go hand in hand. He is definitely a worthy recipient of this honor."

STEVE YOUNG

QUARTERBACK: 1975-77
INDUCTED: 2001

One of the greatest collegiate quarterbacks of all time, Young set 13 NCAA records. As a junior, he averaged 318.8 yards per game of total offense, earning All-Western Athletic Conference recognition and Conference Player of the Year honors. In his senior season, he repeated as a first-team All-WAC selection, completed 306 of 429 pass attempts for an impressive .713 percentage and led BYU to its second-straight Holiday Bowl. His .713 completion percentage, 3,902 yards passing, 4,346 yards of total offense and 33 touchdowns all led the nation. He completed 592 of 907 attempts for a .653 average, threw for 7,733 yards and 56 touchdowns and had 8,817 yards of total offense in only 31 games. A unanimous All-American and academic All-WAC selection, Young was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy and received a National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award in recognition for his excellence on the field, in the classroom and in the community. Young retired after 15 seasons in the NFL, where he earned two MVP awards, seven trips to the Pro Bowl and led the San Francisco 49ers to win the Super Bowl in 1995, earning MVP honors.

GORDON HUDSON

TIGHT END: 1980-83
INDUCTED: 2009

Hudson is the first non-quarterback to represent BYU as a player in the Hall. A consensus All-America First Team pick in 1982 and 1983, Hudson is still the NCAA FBS record holder for most passes caught per game by a tight end (5.4) in a career, most career yards per game by a tight end (75.3) and most yards in a single game by a tight end (259). Hudson helped BYU win four conference championships (WAC) and earn four Holiday Bowl invitations during his career from 1980-83. He totaled 2,484 receiving yards and 22 touchdowns during his All-American career.

TY DETMER

QUARTERBACK: 1988-91
INDUCTED: 2012

Heisman Trophy Winner, Detmer is BYU's seventh inductee into the Hall of Fame. Detmer also won the Maxwell Award, two Davey O'Brien Awards and set 63 NCAA records in his tenure. Twice named a consensus All-American, Detmer won national player of the year awards from organizations such as UPI, CBS, Scripps Howard and the U.S. Sports Academy. His 15,031 career passing yards and 121 touchdowns were NCAA bests at the time, and the gunslinger still holds three records. A three-time first team All-WAC performer, Detmer led College Football Hall of Fame coach LaVell Edwards' teams to three conference titles, four bowl games, three AP Top-25 finishes and a 28-21 win over top-ranked and defending national champion Miami on Sept. 8, 1990. The NCAA Today's Top VI Award recipient was a ninth round selection of the 1992 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers and played 14 seasons in the NFL. A 2000 inductee of the BYU Athletics Hall of Fame, Detmer returned to BYU as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2016-2017.

TIGHT END TRADITION

BYU's tight ends have earned unprecedented success as a featured position in the offense for decades. In 2023, BYU returns Isaac Rex, a former freshman All-American that grabbed 12 touchdowns in 2020 and has 21 total in his career. Rex comes after the successful career of Matt Bushman who joined former BYU consensus All-Americans Gordon Hudson and Dennis Pitta as the only Cougar tight ends with three consecutive seasons with more than 500 receiving yards. In 2019 he had 47 receptions for 688 yards. He started his BYU career by leading all freshman tight ends in college football in 2017 with 49 receptions, 520 yards and three touchdowns to earn Freshman All-America status.

Over the years, Cougar football has emerged as the home of some of the best pass-catching tight ends in NCAA history. Starting with "Miracle Bowl" hero Clay Brown in 1980, nine BYU tight ends have earned All-America recognition. Since 1976, 12 Cougar tight ends have received 20 first-team All-Conference citations.

Hudson, a two-time consensus All-American, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. Five former Cougars helped lead their teams to the Super Bowl—Doug Jolley with the Oakland Raiders in 2003, Chad Lewis with the Philadelphia Eagles in 2005, Itula Mili with the Seattle Seahawks in 2006, Gabriel Reid with the Chicago Bears in 2007 and Pitta with the Baltimore Ravens in 2013.

Two former BYU Cougars, Todd Christensen and Chad Lewis, have been named to several Pro Bowl teams during their successful professional careers as tight ends. A BYU tight end was named first-team all-conference (Jonny Harline in 2005 and 2006 and Dennis Pitta in 2007, 2008 and 2009) in five-straight years. In 2009, BYU became the first team in MWC history to sweep the tight end honors as Andrew George earned All-MWC Second Team accolades while Pitta was a consensus All-American.

POLYNESIAN TRADITION

The Polynesian Islands have become a hotbed for college football recruiting in recent years, but BYU has been one of the pioneers in bringing players from Tonga, Samoa, the Hawaiian Islands and all of Polynesia to the forefront of college football since the early 1950s.

Harry Bray of Hilo, Hawai'i, transferred from Weber College to play for the Cougars in 1951, becoming the first Polynesian to play for the Cougars. Other Pacific Islanders who followed included: Famika Anae (1954-55), John Kapele (1957-59), John Kawaa (1962-1963), John Lupoi (1967-1969) and Henry Nawahine (1964-1965).

Some of BYU's most celebrated and decorated players have come from the Pacific islands, including All-Americans, national record holders and players who have gone on to compete in the NFL. BYU's former and current football staff also boast a Polynesian tradition.

Kalani Sitake was named BYU's 14th head coach on Dec. 19, 2015, becoming the first Tongan head football coach in NCAA history. Sitake was raised in Laie, Hawaii, and later moved to the mainland. His staff includes Polynesians Fesi Sitake, Sione Po'uha, Justin Ena, Harvey Unga, Vince Feula, Al Pupunu and Jack Damuni.

Since 1951, hundreds of Polynesian players have suited up for BYU and dozens have gone on to successful careers in the NFL. Polynesian players have come from all over the Pacific including Hawaii, Tonga, Samoa and Fiji. Some of the most notable players include Vai Sikahema, the NCAA's career leader in punt returns, All-American and NFL veteran tight end Itula Mili and BYU's No. 2 career rusher, Harvey Unga.

Of the hundreds of Polynesian players, several rank among the top statistical leaders in BYU history. Two of the top-10 career rushers are Polynesian. Two of the top-10 leaders in career receiving yards are also Polynesian. Since 1982, 11 of BYU's season rushing leaders have been Pacific Islanders.

ZACH KAPONO WILSON
2020 POLYNESIAN COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

BYU quarterback Zach Kapono Wilson, of Hawaiian ancestry, and University of Southern California safety Talanoa Hufanga, of Tongan ancestry, were named co-recipients of the 2020 Polynesian College Football Player of the Year Award. The award is presented annually to the most outstanding Polynesian college football player that epitomizes great ability and integrity.

Wilson led BYU to a 11-1 record in 2020 while earning All-America honors and finishing No. 8 in the Heisman Trophy voting. The All-Independent First Team honoree threw for 3,692 yards, 33 touchdowns and only three interceptions on the season. He broke a BYU record, previously held by Steve Young, for completion percentage, completing 73.5 percent of his passes in 2020. He also rushed for 255 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Wilson posted 11 different top-10 rankings in 2020. He was ranked No. 2 nationally in points responsible for (264), passing efficiency (196.4) and completion percentage (73.5); No. 3 in passing yards (3,692), passing touchdowns (33), yards per pass attempt (10.99) and points responsible for per game (22.0); No. 4 in rushing touchdowns by a quarterback; No. 5 in passing yards per completion (14.95); No. 8 in total offense (328.8); and No. 10 in passing yards per game (307.7)

CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICANS

The National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) recognizes All-America teams selected by the AP, AFCA, FWAA, Sporting News, and the WCFF to determine consensus All-Americans. If more than half of the organizations select a player to their first team, he receives the "consensus" honor. Depending upon the distribution of first team honors at any given position, it is possible to be consensus with fewer than three first-team selections. If no player qualifies under that criterion, a player named to two first teams can be chosen. If a player is named an All-American by all five organizations, he receives "unanimous All-American" recognition.

FIRST-TEAM ALL CONFERENCE

Over its nearly 100 year football history, BYU has been a member of four different conferences before becoming an NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision independent prior to the 2011 season. Since 1928, 358 Cougars have been named first-team all-conference or to a national all-independence team. Sanky Dixon—who would go on to coach LaVell Edwards at Lincoln High School in Orem, Utah—was BYU's first all-conference performer in 1928, while 12 Cougars received the honor in 2020. A record 13 Cougars were named to the 1979 All-WAC First Team from a squad that went 11-1 and was ranked as high as No. XX nationally.

CONFERENCE HISTORY

Big 12 Conference (2023-present)

- The Big 12 Conference announced September 10, 2021, the addition of Brigham Young University — along with Central Florida, Cincinnati and Houston — to its existing member institutions, starting in the 2023-24 athletic season.
- In year two, BYU tied for first place in the Big 12 with a 7-2 record and 11-2 overall, despite being picked 13th in the preseason poll.
- BYU finished its first season in 2023 as a member of the Big 12 Conference, going 5-7 overall with a 2-7 mark in league play
- BYU played 47 games previously against members of the Big 12 before becoming a member, including the new members with a record of 24-23.
- Since the university instituted a football program in 1922, BYU had been a member of four different conferences, including the Rocky Mountain (1922-37), Mountain States/Skyline (1938-61), Western Athletic (1962-98) and Mountain West (1999-2010) before going independent for the 2011 season.
- The Cougars claimed their first conference championship in program history in 1965, going 4-2 in the WAC under head coach Tom Hudspeth. BYU won its next title, the first of 19 under legendary coach LaVell Edwards, in 1974 and have captured a total of 23 conference championships through the years.

Independent (2011-2022)

- On September 1, 2010, BYU announced its football program would compete in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision as an independent beginning with the 2011 season.
- BYU played 155 games over 12 seasons as an independent, with a record of 99-56 (.639)
- BYU faced more than 75 different teams from 37 different states, representing every FBS conference as well as Notre Dame and other independent programs. BYU played 55 games against Power 5 conference opponents in that span.
- The Cougars have 25 wins over Power 5 opponents, including at least one against every Power 5 conference.
- BYU had 118 games televised on the ESPN family of networks during independence and 95 on a major national TV network (ABC, FOX, CBS, NBC, ESPN or ESPN2)

Mountain West (1999-10)

- For the third time in program history, BYU chartered the creation of a new conference, this time joined by New Mexico, Utah, Air Force, Colorado St., San Diego State, UNLV and Wyoming. TCU joined in 2005.
- BYU football posted a 64-26 (.711) conference record in its 12 years in the conference.
- The Cougars' four MWC titles, 64 wins and 54 All-MWC First Team selections equal or surpass any MWC team since the league's inception.
- BYU won four MWC titles, including back-to-back championships in 2006-07. In three of its championship seasons, BYU went undefeated in conference play

Western Athletic (1962-98)

- BYU was a charter member of the conference along with Arizona, Arizona State, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming.
- The WAC eventually expanded to as many as 16 schools in 1996.
- BYU football posted a 187-69-2 (.729) conference record in its 37 years in the conference.
- While in the WAC, the Cougars won the 1984 National Championship, finishing 13-0.
- BYU won a total of 19 titles in the WAC, including its first-ever football championship in 1965 and 10-straight from 1976-85.
- BYU's 19 WAC titles, 187 conference wins and 199 All-WAC First Team selections are all still the most by far of any WAC team.

Mountain States/Skyline (1938-61)

- BYU was a charter member of the conference, leaving with Colorado, Colorado State, Denver, Utah, Utah State and Wyoming when the RMFAC was deemed too large. Montana and New Mexico joined in 1951.
- After Colorado left in 1947, the conference became popularly known as the Skyline Conference.
- Football posted a 41-75-12 (.367) conference record in its 24 years in the conference.
- The conference dissolved in early 1962 after BYU, Utah, Wyoming and New Mexico left to form the WAC.

Rocky Mountain Faculty Athletic (1922-37)

- BYU joined the RMFAC in 1918 with football participation beginning four years later.
- BYU football posted a 46-52-4 (.471) conference record in its 16 years in the conference.
- When BYU joined, other RMFAC schools included Colorado, Colorado A&M (now Colorado State), Colorado College, Colorado School of Mines, Denver, Utah, Utah State and Montana State. Wyoming, Western St. and Colorado Teacher's College (now Northern Colorado) joined two years later.

BYU IN THE NFL

As of August, 2025, BYU has 18 players on NFL rosters. In addition, former Cougar offensive lineman Andy Reid has led the Kansas City Chiefs to three Super Bowl titles in the last six seasons. BYU had its three consecutive offensive tackles drafted from 2021-2024. During the 2024 season, Kyle Van Noy in his 11th season in the league, had his best statistical season with the Ravens, logging a career-best 12.5 sacks. In 2023, three players were drafted, including offensive tackle Blake Freeland (4th round, Colts), quarterback Jaren Hall (5th round, Vikings) and wide receiver Puka Nacua (5th round, Rams). Nacua broke the rookie records for receptions and receiving yards last season, becoming a Pro Bowl selection and fan favorite. Running backs Tyler Allgeier and Jamaal Williams also ran for 1,000 yards each in 2022. In 2021, Zach Wilson became the highest drafted Cougar ever when the New York Jets made him the No. 2 overall pick. BYU's NFL players currently in the league have earned more than $300 million in their careers.

• Fred Warner was drafted by the San Francisco 49ers in the third round of the 2018 NFL Draft. The linebacker went on to start every game his rookie season, posting a team-leading 124 total tackles. The 2021 All-Pro signed a five-year, $95 million contract in July 2021 and recently signed a 3-year $63 million dollar extension in 2025, once again making him the highest-paid linebacker in the NFL.

• In 2010, Dennis Pitta became the 10th BYU tight end picked in the NFL Draft and the fourth since 2001. The consensus All-American was the 16th pick in the fourth round of the 2010 draft by the Baltimore Ravens.

• The Cougars have been represented in 52 of the last 57 drafts and in 69 of the 89 drafts conducted overall. With Suamataia's selection, NFL teams have now drafted a former BYU player 155 times since the team's first draft choice in 1938 (John Stringham, Back, ninth round).

SUPER BOWL COUGARS

BYU has had 47 Cougars in the Super Bowl, including recently retired director of athletics Tom Holmoe and quarterback Steve Young who each won three rings playing for the San Francisco 49ers. Holmoe won an additional ring as a coach with 49ers after his playing career was over. Kansas City Chiefs head coach Andy Reid joined that elite group with his fourth ring after winning Super Bowl LVIII, giving him three leading the Chiefs and one as an assistant with the Green Bay Packers. Offensive lineman Bart Oates has three Super Bowl rings, winning two with the New York Giants and one with the 49ers. Quarterback Jim McMahon led the Chicago Bears to a Super Bowl XX victory in 1986 and then won a second ring with the Green Bay Packers in 1997 at Super Bowl XXXI. Defensive linemen Brett Keisel and Chris Hoke both have a pair of rings while playing together for the Pittsburgh Steelers. Tight end Dennis Pitta won a ring in 2013 with the Ravens. Pitta had four catches for 26 yards including a 1-yard touchdown reception in the Super Bowl XLVII win over the 49ers. Linebacker Kyle Van Noy has appeared in three Super Bowls, winning two with the New England Patriots.

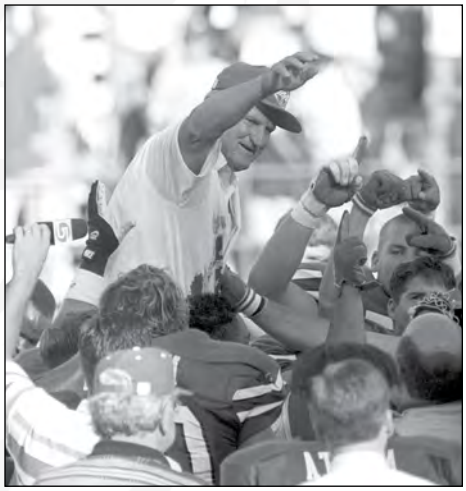
Linebacker Kyle Van Noy essentially took over for BYU in the 2012 Poinsettia Bowl, where he forced and recovered a fumble for the go-ahead touchdown and minutes later returned an interception for his second-defensive score of the 4th quarter en route to a 23-6 victory over SDSU at Qualcomm Stadium.



LaVell Edwards celebrates BYU's 19-15 Cotton Bowl victory over Kansas State in 1997. It has been the Cougars' only New Year's Day bowl game.

In one of the greatest bowls games in NCAA history, BYU overcame a 45-25 deficit with 4:07 left in the game to win 46-45 in the 1980 Holiday Bowl over SMU, nicknamed the "Miracle Bowl." With 4:07 remaining in the game, SMU scored to go ahead, 45-25. From there the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an on-side kick, scored on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips, and blocked a punt. Finally, with three seconds left on the clock, Jim McMahon connected on a "Hail Mary" pass of 41 yards to Clay Brown.

Quarterback Steve Young caught the game-winning touchdown from running back Eddie Stinnett with under a minute to play vs. Missouri to win the 1983 Holiday Bowl 21-17.

Robbie Bosco led BYU to a 24-17 over Michigan to secure BYU's 1984 National Championship in the Holiday Bowl.

The Cougars got off to a quick start with two field goals during the first quarter before All-WAC quarterback Gary Sheide suffered a dislocated shoulder right before the quarter ended. He was replaced by junior reserve Mark Giles. The Cowboys took the scoring lead during the second quarter with a touchdown run giving the Cowboys a 7-6 halftime advantage. A field goal from 32 yards out put OSU in front 10-6 at the end of the third quarter. With 1:14 remaining in the game, Oklahoma State scored a touchdown on a 40-yard halfback pass to complete the scoring. The Cougars out-gained Oklahoma State in total yardage, 301-224. Giles was 11 of 26 for 138 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:
The inaugural Holiday Bowl pitted two teams with local drawing power, the Naval Academy and Brigham Young University. Despite chilly temperatures, the two teams engaged in a hard-hitting battle. Defense dominated the first two quarters. Brent Johnson put the Cougars on the scoreboard first with a 33-yard field goal with 8:26 left in the first quarter. Navy's Bob Tata boomed a 40-yard field goal to tie the score at 3-3. Jim McMahon sent the Cougars ahead with a 10-yard pass to Mike Chronister, but Johnson missed the PAT. McMahon ran another in from two yards out in the third period for a 16-3 BYU lead. Navy cut the lead to 16-10 after three quarters and then tied the game on two field goals in the fourth quarter, but it was a 65-yard pass to Phil McConkey that did the Cougars in. Some 52,500 witnessed the game in person. McConkey was named Best Offensive Player and BYU's Tom Enlow won Best Defensive Player honors. Navy finished the year at 9-3, BYU at 9-4.

GAME SUMMARY:
Powerful Oklahoma State, sparked by All-American Terry Miller (173 yards rushing on 23 carries), used four pass interceptions and a fumble recovery to capture the 31st annual Tangerine Bowl. Defensively, the Cowboys yielded only 46 yards rushing. The Cougars, however, stayed close in the first half, which ended 28-14. Dave Lowry returned the second-half kickoff 102 yards (a Tangerine Bowl record) to move the Cougars to within seven at 28-21. From there, it was all Cowboys. Gifford Nielsen completed 23 of 34 passes for 209 yards and one touchdown, but the Cougars could only roll up 255 yards to Oklahoma State's 402. BYU entered the game with a 9-2 record, while Oklahoma State came in after tying for the Big 8 title. Later, the stadium was expanded and the name changed to the Florida Citrus Bowl.

The opportunistic Hoosiers played the Cougars tough, holding a 21-17 lead at the half. BYU jumped ahead in the third quarter, 24-21, on a 13-yard pass from All-American Marc Wilson to Homer Jones. After a back and forth third quarter, Indiana's Tim Wilbur returned a punt 62 yards to give the Hoosiers the lead 38-37 midway through the fourth. With 2:06 remaining in the game, BYU moved the ball 69 yards to the Indiana 10. Then, with 11 seconds left, Brent Johnson missed a 27-yard field goal that would have won the game. Wilson was voted the MVP on offense (28 of 43 for 380 yards) Clay Brown caught nine passes for 142 yards.

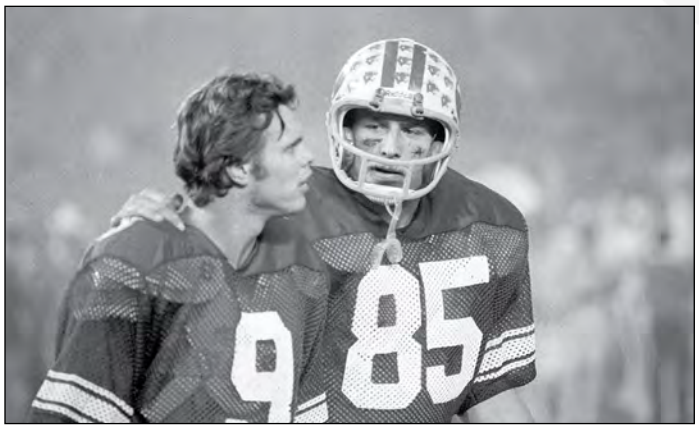
GAME SUMMARY:
One observer said the 1980 Holiday Bowl was actually two ball games--a contest which lasted most of four quarters and another of four minutes duration. SMU controlled the "first game," leaving the Cougars behind 20 points with only minutes remaining. Unfortunately, many fans either turned off their TV sets or left the stadium in San Diego before the "second game" began. In the final four minutes, BYU surged to a stunning 46-45 win. For 56 minutes the Mustangs taught the Cougars a lesson in running the football. The Mustangs' two great running backs, Craig James and Eric Dickerson, rushed for a combined total of 335 yards. With 4:07 remaining in the game, SMU scored to go ahead, 45-25. From there the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an on-side kick, scored on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips and blocked a punt. Finally, with three seconds left on the clock, Jim McMahon connected on a "Hail Mary" pass of 41 yards to Clay Brown. With the score tied, Kurt Gunther kicked the extra point to send BYU fans streaming onto the field. McMahon was 32 of 49 passes for 446 yards. It may have been the most exciting bowl game ever, with the Cougars getting 21 points in the final 2:33. Ironically, four passes on conversion attempts had failed before McMahon hit Phillips after the next-to-last touchdown to cut a 45-31 deficit to 45-39 and put the Cougars in a position to win the game with one more score. The 50-yard drive was set up when Todd Shell recovered a Brent Johnson on-side-kick at midfield. SMU got the ball back with 1:57 but had to punt. The kick was blocked by defensive back Bill Schoepflin and recovered by the SMU punter, Eric Kaifes, with 13 seconds left. McMahon threw one incomplete pass intended for Brown and another for Lloyd Jones before unleashing the famous pass to Brown in the end zone with no time left on the clock.



Jim McMahon connected with Clay Brown on a 41-yard TD pass with three seconds left on the clock to complete one of the greatest comebacks in NCAA bowl history as BYU defeated SMU 46-45 in the 1980 Holiday Bowl.

With 59 seconds left in the third quarter, Washington State scored to make it 31-28. But Jim McMahon took over moving BYU 82 yards for a score to stretch the lead to 38-28. McMahon was 27 of 43 with no interceptions and three touchdowns. Tight end Gordon Hudson collected seven catches for 126 yards and a touchdown. Dan Plater also caught a touchdown pass and Waymon Hamilton scored on the ground. GAME SUMMARY:
The Cougars had their two-game Holiday Bowl win streak snapped by Ohio State, 47-17. BYU's bubble burst at the outset of the third quarter, when the Buckeyes reeled off 17 unanswered points. Tim Spencer blew through the Cougar defense for 167 yards, including a record-setting 61-yard touchdown run in the second quarter that put Ohio State up, 10-7. Steve Young completed 27 of 45 passes for 341 yards. The Cougars turned the ball over three times inside the 30 and saw the Buckeyes convert each turnover into a score. The Cougars took the lead early in the second quarter with a seven-yard strike to Neil Balholm. But Spencer's long gallop and a blocked punt put the Buckeyes up, 17-10, at halftime. Big fullback Vaughn Broadnax scored on the opening drive of the second half, and on the next play, Young was intercepted and Spencer ran 18 yards to put Ohio State in control for good. BYU's only other score came midway through the fourth quarter when Gordon Hudson caught a 13-yard pass. Ten different Cougars caught passes, led by Hudson with seven receptions for 81 yards and Balholm with 58 yards receiving.

GAME SUMMARY:
Yet another chapter was added to the saga of impossible, thrilling Holiday Bowl finishes when BYU defeated Missouri, 21-17. The game was billed as a classic matchup between Missouri's stubborn defense and BYU's explosive offense, led by quarterback Steve Young. Missouri held BYU to just 167 yards and seven points in the first half, while BYU's defense allowed the Tigers only 157 yards and 10 points. Missouri got its first-half points on a two-yard run by Eric Drain and a 37-yard field goal by Brad Burditt. BYU's touchdown came on a 10-yard quarterback draw by Young. In the second half, Young hit Eddie Stinnett with a 33-yard touchdown pass. Missouri came right back with another two-yard plunge by Drain. A valiant goal-line stand by BYU gave the Cougars the ball on the six-yard-line with 3:57 left in the game. Led by Young, the Cougars moved down the field to the Missouri 15 with under a minute to play. On first-and-10 at the Tigers' 15, Young handed to Stinnett, who faked a sweep right and threw back across the field to Young. The Stinnett pass barely cleared the outstretched hands of Missouri's Bobby Bell allowing Young to gather it in and scramble 15 yards to the end zone. The PAT gave BYU a 21-17 lead with 23 seconds left. Kyle Morrell intercepted a Missouri desperation pass at the BYU two-yard line and returned it to the 17 to seal the win.

OSU – Spangler 47-yard field goal

OSU – Kolic 14 pass interception (Spangelr kick)

GAME SUMMARY:
In what promised to be an offensive showdown between pass-happy BYU (11-2) and rough and tumble Ohio State (8-3), two of the nation's top defenses took center stage. In fact, the game's only touchdowns were produced by a noseguard on an interception and a reserve wide receiver on a broken play. Buckeye kicker Rich Spangler tallied the first points of the game with a 47-yard field goal early in the second quarter to give Ohio State a 3-0 lead. BYU attempted to answer with a long drive of its own, only to come away empty after Vai Sikahema fumbled on an apparent touchdown plunge. Before the first half ended, quarterback Robbie Bosco rolled left, whirled right and found wide receiver David Miles on a 38-yard strike to give the Cougars a 7-3 halftime lead. In the second half, Ohio State noseguard Larry Kolic intercepted Bosco and took it in for a touchdown to give the Buckeyes a 10-7 lead. Leon White and Kyle Whittingham recovered fumbles but Kolic got another interception and Terry White intercepted two in the end zone to stop BYU threats—one with 3:38 to play and again with three seconds left. Ohio State was the benefactor of six Cougar turnovers, and the Buckeyes went home the victor. Mark Bellini had 89 yards receiving while Lakei Heimuli added 10 receptions for 77 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:
Holiday Bowl VII lived up to all the glamour and excitement of the previous six bowls, plus it had a new dimension--national championship luster--thanks to BYU's undefeated, untied season and No. 1 ranking. The 24-17 Cougar victory marked the first time in years that a non-New Year's Day bowl game determined the national championship. The contest was played in typical Holiday Bowl fashion. After a scoreless first quarter in which Cougar quarterback Robbie Bosco was forced to the sideline with an injured knee and ankle, the game began to develop drama. BYU scored first with 8:37 left in the first half on a five-yard run by Kelly Smith. The touchdown was set up when a limping Bosco returned to the lineup and engineered an 80-yard drive. The Wolverines responded by putting together an 80-yard scoring drive of their own, culminating on Rick Rogers' five-yard touchdown run up the middle. The PAT tied the score at seven. The tie was short-lived however, as a 31-yard field goal by Lee Johnson with time running out in the first half gave BYU a 10-7 lead at the break. Midway through the third period, Michigan went on top for the first time at 14-10 on a 10-yard scoring strike from Bob Zurbrugg to Bob Perryman. The Wolverines added to their lead when Bob Bergeron nailed a 32-yard field goal to make the Michigan lead 17-10 with 14:14 to play. The Cougar offense then produced an 80-yard drive that culminated with a seven-yard Bosco-to-Glen Kozlowski touchdown pass to tie the game at 17 with 10:51 to go. Bosco's 13-yard scoring toss to Smith with 1:23 remaining made it 24-17. Two plays later Marv Allen intercepted a pass to clinch a 13-0 season and the 1984 national championship. David Mills finished with 11 catches for 103 yards receiving and Smith had 10 for 88. Lakei Heimuli led BYU with 82 yards rushing while Bob Perryman had 110 for Michigan.

LaVell Edwards addresses the media following the Cougars 24-17 victory over Michigan in the 1984 Holiday Bowl. The win clinched BYU's first-ever perfect season at 13-0 and extended its consecutive-game winning streak to 24-straight. A few weeks later BYU would be crowned national champions and Edwards named national coach of the year.

GAME SUMMARY:
Although BYU failed to win the WAC title, the Cougars kept alive an impressive streak of nine bowl appearances in a row by being invited to the third annual Freedom Bowl. There they met familiar foe UCLA. The two teams had met in 1985 when the Bruins came from behind to win a tough game in Provo, 27-24. The Freedom Bowl, however, proved different as UCLA outstanding running back Gaston Green broke open a close game in the third quarter and the Bruins went on to win 31-10. Green finished with 266 yards on 33 carries. The first half was all defense as the two teams punted nine times in the first 30 minutes. BYU struck first when linebacker Andy Katoa recovered a UCLA fumble at the Bruin 47 and Leonard Chitty put the Cougars ahead 3-0 with a 32-yard field goal. UCLA stormed ahead to stay with a 71-yard touchdown drive highlighted by a 49-yard run on a reverse by Bruin receiver Karl Dorrell. From then on, it was UCLA most of the way. Cougar quarterbacks Bob Jensen and Mike Young managed to pass for over 200 yards, but UCLA and Green did most of the damage. Costly injuries to standouts Mark Bellini and Katoa hindered the Cougar effort, but Outland Trophy winner Jason Buck turned in another strong effort.

GAME SUMMARY:
A star was born in the fifth annual Freedom Bowl when Ty Detmer came off the bench to earn MVP honors while leading the Cougars to an upset victory over Colorado. Cool weather didn't hamper diminutive Eric Bieniemy, who rushed 33 times for 144 yards and two touchdowns. But his heroics couldn't offset Detmer's 11 for 17 and 129 yards in the second half. Scott Peterson made an interception to set up the game-winning field goal. It was an exciting contest for the 35,941 fans (49,694 tickets were sold) in attendance. A fumble at midfield led to the Buffaloes' first score, before Sean Covey found Mike Salido to tie the score. An interception in the end zone stopped a BYU drive early in the second quarter as the Cougars trailed at the half, 14-7. A Detmer to Chuck Cutler pass tied the game in the third quarter but Colorado took a 17-14 lead early in the final quarter. BYU then moved from its own four to the Buffalo 14 and tied the game with 4:11 left on a 31-yarder by Chaffetz. Three plays later, Peterson's interception and a 15-yard penalty put the ball at the Colorado 32. With 2:33 left, Chaffetz booted a 35-yarder for the victory. Halfback Matt Bellini carried eight times for 78 yards and caught four passes for 41 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:
The Cougars' 10th-consecutive bowl appearance included several records, but BYU lost 22-16 in its first-ever meeting with Virginia. Sean Covey attempted 61 passes, David Miles had 188 yards in receptions and Pat Thompson only punted once, but BYU fell short. Chitty, who set a season best for field goals (18) and consecutive PATs (29), missed from 51 and 47 yards as Virginia took a 14-3 lead into the intermission. BYU got to the Virginia two-yard-line midway through the third quarter only to have a fourth-down pass tipped away. Later, Freddie Whittingham scampered eight yards to cut the lead to 14-9 at the end of the third quarter. Virginia then went on a 76-yard drive to go ahead 22-9 with 11 minutes left. BYU answered with a one-yard TD pass to Whittingham with seven minutes remaining, but that was as close as the Cougars would get.

Two unusual plays late in the game kept BYU from downing Penn State and offset 576 yards passing by Ty Detmer—the highest total ever in a bowl game. BYU trailed 41-26 with nine and a half minutes remaining and scored twice to cut the lead to 41-39 with 2:30 to play. The two-point conversion try to tie the game was intercepted in the end zone by Penn State linebacker Andre Collins and returned 102 yards for two points. Down 43-39, the Cougars forced the Lions to punt, giving BYU the ball on its own 12 with two minutes left. Passes to Brent Nyberg, Matt Bellini, Chris Smith and Andy Boyce moved the ball to the Penn State 38 with a minute left to play. Then, Penn State safety Gary Brown stripped the ball from Detmer at the Penn State 47 and raced 53 yards for the score. BYU finished the season ranked 18th in the UPI poll and 22nd in the others.

GAME SUMMARY:
The Cougars entered the game beat up. Defensive backs Tony Crutchfield and Norm Dixon weren't able to suit up and Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer was playing with a slight separation in his non-throwing shoulder. The second-largest Holiday Bowl crowd ever (61,441) watched the Aggies march 80 yards in 13 plays to take a 7-0 lead. The Cougars tied the score on an eight-yard Detmer-to-Chris Smith touchdown pass, but after that, the game was all Texas A&M. The Aggies went on to score 23 points in the second quarter en route to a 37-7 halftime lead. With the game out of hand, the big story was William Thomas' crunching sack that separated Detmer's throwing shoulder and put him out of the game early in the third quarter. The Aggies continued to dominate by racking up nearly 200 yards rushing in the second half. Texas A&M's Richardson would go on to be named Offensive Player of the Game by piling up 344 yards in total offense. Thomas was named the top defensive player. BYU finished the season ranked 17th by UPI, 20th by CNN/USA Today and 22nd by AP. BYU had been as high as fourth prior to its first loss.

GAME SUMMARY:
Ty Detmer turned in another great performance in his last appearance as a Cougar, passing for 350 yards and two touchdowns against a team that led the Big 10 in defense and sacks. Quarterback Matt Rodgers led 7th ranked Iowa on a 74-yard scoring march on the game's opening drive. The Hawkeyes also scored on another long drive in the second quarter. Down 13-0, BYU finally got things rolling when Detmer found fullback Peter Tuipulotu for a touchdown. The PAT failed and the halftime score was 13-6. BYU opened the fourth with an 87-yard drive that culminated with a Detmer-to-Tyler Anderson touchdown from 29 yards out. Earl Kauffman connected on the PAT to tie the score at 13. Each team threatened to score late in the fourth quarter. Iowa missed a 40-yard field goal with 4:19 left. On the game's final drive the Cougars moved inside the Iowa 20 with 33 seconds left to play, but Detmer's pass to tight end Byron Rex was tipped and picked off by Hawkeye safety Carlos James in the end zone to preserve the tie. BYU finished the season ranked 23rd in the AP and CNN/USA Today polls. Iowa was 10th in both polls.

GAME SUMMARY:
Kansas kicker Dan Eichloff booted a 48-yard field goal with 2:57 left to play, giving the Jayhawks a victory over BYU, the WAC tri-champion. Tom Young, who completed 15 of 31 passes for 262 yards in his first varsity start, was named Most Valuable Player for BYU. Tackle Dana Stubblefield, who had three of the six sacks on Young, won the honor for Kansas. The Cougars took an early lead when Hema Heimuli took the opening kickoff 94 yards for a score. Kansas tied the game two plays later when wide receiver Matt Gay threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to tight end Rodney Harris. BYU took a 14-9 lead in the second quarter when Jamal Willis ran 29 yards for a score. Eichloff then cut the halftime score to 14-12 with a 42-yard field goal. But the kicking game would prove the downfall as the Cougars missed a 36-yard field goal in the first quarter as well as a 31-yarder and mis-played an extra point attempt in the third quarter. Young threw 10 yards to Otis Sterling for the only score of the third quarter. Kansas quarterback Chip Hilleary then tied the game by directing a 75-yard drive in a minute and a half, scoring the touchdown and then running for a two-point conversion.

GAME SUMMARY:
BYU had four downs and 32 seconds to tie or win the game from the OSU six-yard line, but four-straight John Walsh passes into the end zone fell to the ground and OSU slipped away with the win. BYU got to the Ohio State six, 14 and 22-yard lines in the second half without scoring. Meanwhile, Raymont Harris, OSU's senior halfback, battered the BYU defense all night long, scoring three touchdowns on his way to a record 235 yards rushing. Despite Harris' rushing, the Cougars managed to go into the halftime break tied at 21. Chad Lewis made a spectacular one-handed touchdown grab in the corner of the end zone to bail the Cougars out of a fourth-and-eight situation. After Harris' short touchdown run late in the third, BYU and OSU traded possessions until late into the fourth quarter. After forcing a rare Buckeye punt, BYU got the ball back on its own 42 with 43 seconds left. On first down, Walsh hooked up with senior co-captain Eric Drage who ran away from Buckeye defenders and advanced the ball 52 yards to the OSU six-yard line. Walsh had 389 yards and fullback Kalin Hall rushed for 42 yards on 11 carries. Tyler Anderson returned five kicks for 145 yards, including an exciting 45-yarder. Harris and Walsh shared MVP honors.

GAME SUMMARY:
BYU fans celebrated the New Year early as the Cougars dominated Oklahoma and ended its five-year winning drought in bowl games. Quarterback John Walsh and the offense clicked on all cylinders and the Cougars' defense was dominating throughout the ESPN telecast. Walsh threw a seven-yard TD pass to Bryce Doman in the first quarter and had a 25-yard pass to Mike Johnston in the second quarter. A four-yard scoring pass to Johnston in the third quarter and a 28-yard touchdown pass to Doman in the fourth quarter vaulted Walsh's stats to 454 yards and four touchdowns on 31 of 45 passes with no interceptions against the Sooner defense which had held national champion Nebraska to 13 points. BYU's defense was dominating as it held Oklahoma to just 72 yards rushing and 163 yards passing—most of those in the last quarter. The Sooners did not cross midfield until their ninth possession on the second-to-last play of the third quarter. Jamal Willis caught seven passes for 103 yards and was chosen Offensive Player of the Game. Walsh was named MVP in what would be his final game at BYU. BYU finished 10th in the CNN/USA Today poll and 18th in the Associated Press poll.

GAME SUMMARY:
In BYU's first ever appearance at the Liberty Bowl, the Cougars ran into 10th-ranked Tulane that entered the New Year's Eve game with a perfect season record. The Cougars struck first on an 11-yard pass from Kevin Feterik to receiver Ben Horton. Tulane would score 20 unanswered points in the first half. With just 41 seconds remaining in the half, BYU looked to put an end to the Green Wave momentum, but came up short as Feterik was sacked by Phil Henderson for a 10-yard loss to end the half. Things didn't get much better for the Cougars in the second half, as Tulane scored its third touchdown of the game on the opening drive of the half. On its next possession, the Green Wave would strike again on a 13-yard pass from King to Jamaican Dartez to give Tulane a 34-6 lead with just over seven minutes remaining in the third quarter. On its first drive of the final period, BYU scored for the first time since the 8:49 mark in the first half on an Aaron Cupp three-yard run. Trailing by 28 midway through the fourth quarter, BYU finally crossed the Tulane 20-yard line for the first time since the first half and went on to score 14 unanswered points before time expired.

GAME SUMMARY:
BYU assumed the nation's longest winning streak with a come-from-behind 19-15 victory in the 61st annual Cotton Bowl. It was the first New Year's Day appearance for both 14th-ranked Kansas State and fifth-ranked BYU. More than 40,000-purple clad Kansas State supporters outnumbered the 15,000 Cougar patrons as 71,928 fans filled the Cotton Bowl. BYU got on the board first with a safety, then turned the ensuing punt into a field goal to lead 5-0 in the first quarter. The safety came when linebacker Shay Muirbrook, the game's defensive MVP, collected one of his six sacks. Kansas State took a half-time lead with a 41-yard "Hail Mary" pass and a successful two-point conversion with no time left on the clock. The Wildcats increased the lead to 15-5 in the third quarter when offensive co-MVP Kevin Lockett caught a 72-yard TD. Fueled by consecutive controversial interference no-calls, quarterback Steve Sarkisian engineered two fourth-quarter drives capped by touchdown passes of 32 yards to James Dye and 28 yards to K.O. Kealaluhi. Sarkisian, an offensive co-MVP, completed 21 passes to tie a Cotton Bowl record held by Roger Staubach of Navy. KSU drove the length of the field before Cougar cornerback Omarr Morgan intercepted a Wildcat slant pass at the 12 yard line to secure the game.

GAME SUMMARY:
The Cougars scored first on a field goal by Owen Pochman with 1:58 remaining in the first quarter. That score was set up by a pair of 20-plus yard receptions by Donny Atuaia and Jonathan Pittman. In the second quarter, Marshall drove the ball down to the BYU five-yard line, but failed to convert as a 22-yard field goal attempt by Billy Malashevich missed wide to the right. On the Herd's next possession, Chad Pennington put Marshall on the board with a 30-yard touchdown pass to Doug Chapman. On BYU's ensuing drive, Feterik connected with Margin Hooks for a 67-yard pass play that took the Cougars all the way to the nine-yard line. However, the Cougars couldn't capitalize inside the red zone and Feterik suffered a collarbone injury off a blindside corner blitz. Pochman, who had connected on 18 of 25 attempts in the regular season, missed wide left on his field goal attempt. Feterik attempted to play in the second half, but left the game midway in the third quarter when freshman Bret Engemann took the QB controls. Just before the end of the third quarter, Marshall struck a big play when Chapman rushed 87 yards for a touchdown. To cap off his MVP performance, Chapman scored Marshall's final touchdown. The Cougars missed a final chance to score when Brian Gray had a clear path to the end zone, but dropped the potential interception.

The champions of the MWC faced Louisville, the champions of Conference USA. The Cardinals, led by quarterback Dave Ragone, took an early lead, scoring on a one-yard dive by Henry Miller that was set up by Zek Parker's 70-yard return on the opening kickoff. Midway through the second quarter the Cougar offense came alive, driving to the Louisville 10-yard line. Quarterback Brandon Doman dropped back and rolled right as if to pass, then turned to his left and threw the ball to Dustin Rykert on a tackle-eligible play. All 6-foot-7, 305 pounds of offensive tackle outran the Cardinal defense to the corner and rumbled 10 yards to the end zone to tie the game 7-7. Louisville just managed to take a 14-7 lead into the break, scoring with only 14 seconds left. Louisville contained the Cougar attack for the remainder of the game while reaching the end zone two more times. Although Louisville went on to win 28-10, BYU's defense played one of its best games of the season, holding the Cardinals' high-powered offense to 228 yards passing and only 58 yards rushing.

The 2006 BYU championship run ended with a Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl championship as the Cougars (11-2) dominated Oregon (7-6), 38-8, to finish the season with a 10-game winning streak in front of a Sam Boyd Stadium record crowd of 44,615. The Mountain West Conference champion BYU team set a school record for margin of victory in a bowl game, beating the Ducks by 30 points. Previously, the largest margin of victory for a BYU team in a bowl game was a 25-point defeat of Oklahoma in the 1994 Copper Bowl. BYU dominated all facets of the game, out-gaining Oregon 548 total yards to 260 total yards. BYU passed for 375 compared to Oregon's 166 and rushed for 173 compared to the Ducks 94. BYU seniors John Beck, Jonny Harline and Curtis Brown finished their careers in style. Beck completed 28 of 46 passes for 375 yards and two touchdowns. Harline, who was named Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl MVP, caught nine passes for a career-best – and Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl record – 181 yards and a touchdown. Brown had 17 carries for 120 yards and two touchdowns and also caught seven passes for 55 yards. Brown also became the first BYU runner to rush for over 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons. Beck and Brown became the first quarterback/running back combo to pass for 3,000 yards and rush for 1,000 in the same season twice.

GAME SUMMARY:
No. 17 BYU (11-2) won its second consecutive Las Vegas Bowl, 17-16, against UCLA (6-7) in dramatic fashion by blocking the Bruins' potential game-winning field goal attempt as time expired. True freshman Eathyn Manumaleuna got a piece of UCLA's potential game-winning, 28-yard field goal as time expired in one of the more memorable bowl finishes in BYU football history. The victory also avenged an early-season loss to the Bruins—one of just two losses the Cougars suffered during the season. BYU, who finished the 2007 season on a 10-game winning streak, were led by sophomores Max Hall and Austin Collie. Hall threw 21-35 for 231 yards and two touchdowns, while Collie was named the 2007 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl Most Valuable Player after racking up a game-high 107 yards on six receptions. He was also credited with a game-high 195 all-purpose yards, including three kick returns for a total of 88 yards. The win marked the first time BYU had won back-to-back bowl games since the 1994 Copper Bowl and the 1996 Cotton Bowl. The win over UCLA extended the Cougars' win streak to 10 straight games, which marked the nation's longest active winning streak.

Trailing late in the game, BYU put pressure on Arizona with a comeback attempt when the Cougars followed a touchdown with a successful on-side kick, but the ensuing field-goal attempt hit the upright and left the Wildcats with a two-possession lead, enough to hold on for the win. Austin Collie added to his BYU records in career receptions (215) and single-season receptions (106). The All-American receiver also tied an NCAA single-season record held with Texas Tech's Michael Crabtree with his 11th consecutive 100-yard receiving game. BYU quarterback Max Hall completed 30-of-46 passes for 328 yards and one touchdown. The Cougars finished the year 10-3 and became one of only seven programs in the nation to win 10 or more games each year from 2006-2008. The Cougars last accomplished the feat from 1983-85.

SHREVEPORT, La. — No. 13 ranked BYU finished the 2021 season at 10-3 following a 31-28 loss to UAB in the Radiance Independence Bowl in Shreveport, Louisiana, Saturday.

The UAB Blazers (9-4) jumped out to an early 14-0 lead and despite the Cougars coming back, the Blazers got the last score of the game and forced a late turnover to win it.

All-American running back Tyler Allgeier led a Cougar comeback finished with 192 yards on 27 carries and three touchdowns. His season total of 1,601 rushing yards broke the BYU single-season rushing record, previously held by 2001 Doak Walker Award winner Luke Staley (1,582).

Quarterback Baylor Romney went 15 of 23 for 195 yards in the Cougar loss.

Linebackers Max Tooley and Ben Bywater led the Cougars defensively with 10 and nine tackles respectively. GAME SUMMARY:

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. — The BYU defense made the plays it needed to all night and sealed the Cougars' 24-23 win with a game-saving stop on a 2-point try from SMU from Jakob Robinson in the New Mexico Bowl at University Stadium on Saturday night.

While BYU scored two unanswered touchdowns to go up 24-10 in the third quarter, SMU came galloping back in the fourth with two touchdowns of its own. The second SMU score came as quarterback Tanner Mordecai found receiver Jordan Kerley for a 12-yard scoring strike with eight seconds to play.

Despite the Mustang comeback, the Cougar defense was faced with one more chance to stop SMU as Mustang head coach Rhett Lashlee elected to keep his offense on the field for a 2-point conversion attempt. After a duel of timeouts, SMU sent Mordecai on a quarterback keeper and right into the expectant clutches of Robinson.

The BYU defensive back's game-sealing stop helped the Cougars clinch an 8-5 record and finish the 2022 season on a four-game winning streak.

BYU's defense set the tone, holding the normally prolific SMU attack to 389 total yards with 171 on the ground and 218 through the air. Ben Bywater led the way for the Cougar defense with 11 tackles (four solo) and an interception returned for a touchdown, a 75-yard pick-six that flipped the game in BYU's favor to give them a third-quarter lead.

Pepe Tanuvasa pitched-in 10 tackles, Robinson a career-high nine and Kaleb Hayes eight. BYU also forced two sacks with one from John Nelson and one from Alden Tofa.

With quarterback Jaren Hall injured, third-year freshman Sol-Jay Maiava-Peters made his first-career collegiate start with at quarterback for the Cougars. The Hau'ula, Hawaii native, went 7-of-12 for 47 yards through the air with one interception while running for 96 yards on 14 carries and a touchdown.

The BYU offense rushed for 209 yards with Christopher Brooks carrying the ball 19 times for 88 yards and a rushing score. Hinckley Ropati was handed the ball five times and picked up 29 yards. Isaac Rex led BYU in receiving yards with a solo 27-yard grab.

BYU kicker Jake Oldroyd finished the night 3-for-3 on extra point attempts to go along with a 31-yard field goal make. With his performance on Saturday, Oldroyd has posted 338 points in his career to become BYU's all-time scoring leader.

GAME SUMMARY:

SAN ANTONIO — No. 17 BYU played complementary football in all three phases of the game on its way to winning the Valero Alamo Bowl 36-14 over No. 23 Colorado on Saturday night at the Alamodome.

"I think a lot of things just worked out in our favor in all three phases," BYU head coach Kalani Sitake said. "We didn't play error free, but I liked the way our guys played, I liked the aggressiveness, the physical part of the game. We have a lot of young guys still, but I'm happy for our seniors, the things that they've been able to accomplish. I'm very fortunate to be their coach."

With an 11th win of the season on Saturday, the Cougars finished 11-2 (7-2 Big 12), earning their 13th all-time 11-win season in their 100th football campaign.

BYU dominated from start to finish including a 20-0 lead at halftime as the Cougars held Colorado's offense scoreless in the opening half for the second time this season. The special teams unit had a strong opening 30 minutes with Parker Kingston returning a punt for a touchdown for a second time this season and Will Ferrin connecting on a pair of field goals.

In total BYU outgained the Buffaloes 331-210, including a stifling 180-2 on the ground. The Cougars earned 22 first downs with an 8-of-14 mark on 3rd down, while allowing just nine to Colorado and ran 65 plays to the opponent's 42. BYU's ground game averaged 4.3 yards per carry while its defense allowed the Buffaloes just 0.1 per tote. The Cougars controlled time of possession as well, 35:59-24:01.

Isaiah Glasker led the BYU defense with eight tackles (four solo), a tackle-for-loss and interception on his way to Alamo Bowl Defensive MVP honors. Harrison Taggart, Raider Damuni, Logan Lutui and Siale Esera each registered a sack for the Cougars, headlining a BYU defensive effort that hounded Colorado quarterback Shedeur Sanders from start to finish.

Mory Bamba recorded two pass breakups and Tanner Wall another while cornerback Evan Johnson notched his second interception of the season.

With two interceptions forced against Colorado, the BYU defense finishes the 2024 season with the national lead in interceptions at 22.

Kingston rolled up 126 all-purpose yards in the Alamodome, including 102 yards on four punt returns. Kingston took his second punt return of the night 64 yards for a touchdown, his second such return of the season and the fifth BYU special teams score in 2024.

LJ Martin earned the Alamo Bowl's Offensive MVP award with 121 yards from scrimmage. Martin led BYU in both rushing and receiving with 16 carries for 88 yards and two touchdowns along with two receptions for 33 yards. Tight end Ryner Swanson also had two receptions for 30 yards.

Jake Retzlaff finished the game 12-of-21 for 151 yards and two interceptions while carrying the ball seven times for 29 yards.

BYU Football Programming on BYUtv

BYU is the only school in the country with nationally televised live 60-minute pregame and 30-60-minute postgame shows before and after every game—home or away. With the pregame and postgame shows, BYUtv brings Cougar fans a live perspective on the game that they can't get anywhere else.

BYU Broadcasting also produces daily and weekly BYU-centric sports shows, including BYU Sports Nation, After Further Review, BYU Football with Kalani Sitake and Coordinators' Corner as well as additional BYU football specials throughout the year to highlight events such as National Letter of Intent Day, BYU spring football, BYU's Alumni Game, BYU Pro Day and several other specialty broadcasts which also includes live programming on ESPN3.

BYUtv and BYU Radio/Sirius XM 143 simulcast a daily news show—BYU Sports Nation—that airs live each weekday from noon-1 p.m. ET/10-11 a.m. MT from Studio B at the BYU Broadcasting Building in Provo. The latest news and information about BYU sports are discussed each day by hosts Jarom Jordan and Spencer Linton. During the football season BYUtv also features a weekly one-hour show—After Further Review—where host Dave McCann and a panel of experts provide in-depth analysis of the tactics, plays, and touchdowns of every BYU football game.

BYUtv, available in 54 million North American homes, is on the basic tier of both Dish and DirectTV and is carried by more than 800 cable systems. The network has its own state-of-the-art production building on BYU's campus and a top-of-the-line HD truck that allow BYUtv to televise every game in HD.

RADIO

BYU football games are heard exclusively on the Nu Skin BYU Sports Network. Broadcasts are produced by BYU Radio, which carries the games via satellite radio (SiriusXM 143), BYU Radio app and BYUradio.org. Games are also broadcast on over-the-air flagship KSL Newsradio (102.7 FM/1160 AM) and network affiliates in the Intermountain West.

The "Voice of the Cougars" is Greg Wrubell, entering his 25th season as play-by-play commentator. A BYU graduate, Wrubell is in his 34th season on the football radio broadcast crew, having served as sideline reporter before stepping into the booth.

Wrubell's broadcast partner is former BYU and NFL lineman Hans Olsen, who is entering his third season as game analyst. Former Cougar receiver Mitchell Juergens is back for his eighth season as sideline reporter, while Jason Shepherd returns as studio host.

BYU football broadcast archives are available on the BYU Radio app, at BYUradio.org and on the BYU Football podcast from BYU Radio.

COACHES' SHOWS

In addition to comprehensive game-day coverage, BYU Broadcasting produces "BYU Football with Kalani Sitake," Tuesday nights at 6:30 p.m. MT, throughout the season on the BYUtv and BYU Radio apps, BYUtv.org, BYUradio.org and the Nu Skin BYU Sports Network. A live audience joins Coach Sitake, player guests and host Greg Wrubell at the BYUtv studios for an insightful and entertaining weekly look inside Cougar football.

Assistant coaches Jay Hill, Aaron Roderick and Kelly Poppinga will be featured guests on the weekly "Coordinators' Corner" broadcast, airing Mondays in-season, from noon-1 pm MT. Greg Wrubell hosts the program, which will air live from the BYU Broadcasting studios on the BYUtv and BYU Radio apps, BYUtv.org and BYUradio.org.
